2nd Sunday of Lent

Today's Gospel portrays Jesus as a new and greater Moses.

Moses also took three companions up a mountain and on the seventh day was overshadowed by the shining cloud of God's presence. He too spoke with God and his face and clothing were made radiant in the encounter (see Exodus 24, 34).

But in today's Lenten liturgy, the Church wants us to look back past Moses. Indeed, we are asked to contemplate what today's Epistle calls God's "design . . . from before time began."

With His promises to Abram in today's First Reading, God formed the people through whom He would reveal Himself and bestow His blessings on all humanity.

He later elevated these promises to eternal covenants and changed Abram's name to Abraham, promising that he would be father of a host of nations (see Genesis 17:5). In remembrance of His covenant with Abraham He raised up Moses (see Exodus 2:24; 3:8), and later swore an everlasting kingdom to David's sons (see Jeremiah 33:26).

In Jesus' transfiguration today, He is revealed as the One through whom God fulfills His divine plan from of old.

Not only a new Moses, Jesus is also the "beloved son" promised to Abraham and again to David (see Genesis 22:15-18; Psalm 2:7; Matthew 1:1).

Moses foretold a prophet like him to whom Israel would listen (see Deuteronomy 18:15, 18) and Isaiah foretold an anointed servant in whom God would be well-pleased (see Isaiah 42:1). Jesus is this prophet and this servant, as the Voice on the mountain tells us today.

By faith we have been made children of the covenant with Abraham (see Galatians 3:7-9; Acts 3:25). He calls us, too, to a holy life, to follow His Son to the heavenly homeland He has promised. We know, as we sing in today's Psalm, that we who hope in Him will be delivered from death.

So like our father in faith, we go forth as the Lord directs us: "Listen to Him!"

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Scott Hahn

“Called to Protect” is a program to help us provide a safe environment for your child. It is designed to provide children with abuse prevention skills they can use anywhere. The program teaches age appropriate concepts. It is taught each year to all children in parishes and schools throughout the Archdiocese of Portland. This program will be presented to the children in the First Communion Class on Sunday, March 15 during their regular class time. If you would like to preview the materials for your child's grade level, you can do so on Sunday, March 8 in the Parish Center. For questions, contact Diane at 503-312-6130.

Update on Evangelization Ideas

Wow! The Pastoral Council and Father Marandu are very impressed with all the ideas we received during Advent. It really shows how much potential our parish has for rejuvenating our membership and becoming an even stronger force in the community! So what happens next? We've collated similar ideas and invite all parishioners (and their neighbors) to join us during our Lenten Soup Suppers, where we will discuss them while enjoying a meal together, and decide which ideas we will tackle in 2020. Afterwards, please stay and join us for the Stations of the Cross. There's probably no better way to spend a Friday evening in Lent, turning towards the Lord and the work he is calling us to do. The dates and topics will be:

Mar. 13 – Advertising ideas

Mar. 20 – Signage ideas

Mar. 27 – Community Involvement ideas

Apr. 3 – "Other" ideas
