Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You

are present in the Most Holy Sacrament,

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

We will call you back within 24 hours.

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank all parishioners who have continued to support St. Frederic during these difficult times. May God bless you abundantly.

Divine Mercy Sunday

We are children of Jesus' Resurrection from the dead. Through this wondrous sign of His great mercy, the Father of Jesus has given us new birth, as we hear in today's Epistle.

Today's First Reading sketches the "family life" of our first ancestors in the household of God (see 1 Peter 4:17). We see them doing what we still do—devoting themselves to the Apostles' teaching, meeting daily to pray and celebrate "the breaking of the bread."

The Apostles saw the Lord. He stood in their midst, showed them His hands and sides. They heard His blessing and received His commission—to extend the Father's mercy to all peoples through the power and Spirit He conferred upon them.

We must walk by faith and not by sight, must believe and love what we have not seen (see 2 Corinthians 5:7). Yet the invisible realities are made present for us through the devotions the Apostles handed on.

Notice the experience of the risen Lord in today's Gospel is described in a way that evokes the Mass.

Both appearances take place on a Sunday. The Lord comes to be with His disciples. They rejoice, listen to His Word, receive the gift of His forgiveness and peace. He offers His wounded body to them in remembrance of His Passion. And they know and worship Him as their Lord and their God.

Thomas' confession is a vow of faith in the new covenant. As promised long before, in the blood of Jesus we can now know the Lord as our God and be known as His people (see Hosea 2:20–25).

This confession is sung in the heavenly liturgy (see Revelation 4:11). And in every Mass on earth we renew our covenant and receive the blessings Jesus promised for those who have not seen but have believed.

In the Mass, God's mercy endures forever, as we sing in today's Psalm. This is the day the Lord has made—when the victory of Easter is again made wonderful in our eyes.

"Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Dear Parishioners,

Today we are celebrating the second Sunday of Easter. This is known also as Divine Mercy Sunday. We are celebrating this Sunday emphasizing the Divine Mercy. This Sunday Jesus promises us a complete pardon to the souls who will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of His Mercy. All of you are invited to ask God to forgive you your sins and especially by making a perfect contrition and making a promise that you will receive sacramental Confession when an opportunity comes for you to do so.

You are also invited to continue to receive Jesus in the Act of Spiritual Communion.

Our faith is tested at this time like the way Thomas was tested. We say, like Thomas: “My Lord and My God.”

Let us continue to live Christ’s Resurrection and in a special way continue to pray for the end of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Remember you are loved so much by God.
