Thank you for your Support

Church Offertory

COVID-19 has had a tremendous negative impact on the Church's weekly offertory. Please continue to support the mission of St. Frederic Parish by dropping your envelopes into the mail slot at the Parish Center, mailing them, going to stfredericchurch.org/donations to donate online, or putting them into the collection basket at Mass.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Please Pray for Those Who Have Died

Especially Gail Engen, who died Sunday June 14, 2020. Please keep Gail and her family in your prayers.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Salvador and Lilia Ramirez on the baptism of their son, Alexander Ramirez on Sunday, June 21, 2020.

13th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Psalm 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

Romans 5:12-15

Matthew 10:26-33

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap us and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love.

"Do not be afraid," Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel.

Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him.

Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all those who have attended Mass this past few weeks during our limited reopening of Masses. With Columbia County in Phase II of reopening, we are able to allow more than 25 people to attend Mass. I have added a Wednesday, noon Mass to the schedule. If you would like to sign up, call the office or at our website at: <http://stfredericchurch.org/reopen>. You do not need to sign up each week. My goal is to have enough room on Saturday night and Sunday to accommodate everyone who wants to attend, and eventually eliminate Tuesday night Mass.

As a reminder, please be conscious to practice physical distancing from other people who are not part of your household, including entering and exiting. Even though we've instituted strict safety measures such as sanitizing all touch points after each Mass and removing books and materials from the pews, there is nothing we can do to completely eliminate all risk. If you do not feel comfortable attending Mass, you should not attend.

Archbishop Sample is continuing with the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

God bless,

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
