Church Offertory

COVID-19 has had a tremendous negative impact on the Church's weekly offertory. Please continue to support the mission of St. Frederic Parish by dropping your envelopes into the mail slot at the Parish Center, mailing them, going to stfredericchurch.org/donations to donate online, or putting them into the collection basket at Mass.

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Zechariah 9:9-10

Psalm 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus is portrayed in today's Gospel as a new and greater Moses.

Moses, the meekest man on earth (see Numbers 12:3), was God's friend (see Exodus 34:12, 17). Only he knew God "face to face" (see Deuteronomy 34:10). And Moses gave Israel the yoke of the Law, through which God first revealed Himself and how we are to live (see Jeremiah 2:20; 5:5).

Jesus too is meek and humble. But He is more than God's friend. He is the Son who alone knows the Father. He is more also than a law-giver, presenting Himself today as the yoke of a new Law, and as the revealed Wisdom of God.

As Wisdom, Jesus was present before creation as the firstborn of God, the Father and Lord of heaven and earth (see Proverbs 8:22; Wisdom 9:9). And He gives knowledge of the holy things of the kingdom of God (see Wisdom 10:10).

In the gracious will of the Father, Jesus reveals these things only to the "childlike"—those who humble themselves before Him as little children (see Sirach 2:17). These alone can recognize and receive Jesus as the just savior and meek king promised to daughter Zion, Israel, in today's First Reading.

We too are called to childlike faith in the Father's goodness, as sons and daughters of the new kingdom, the Church.

We are to live by the Spirit we received in Baptism (see Galatians 5:16), putting to death our old ways of thinking and acting, as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle. Our "yoke" is to be His new law of love (see John 13:34), by which we enter into the "rest" of His kingdom.

As we sing in today's Psalm, we joyously await the day when we will praise His name forever in the kingdom that lasts for all ages. This is the sabbath rest promised by Jesus—first anticipated by Moses (see Exodus 20:8-11), but which still awaits the people of God (see Hebrews 4:9).

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all those who have attended Mass this past few weeks during our limited reopening of Masses. With Columbia County in Phase II of reopening, we are able to allow more than 25 people to attend Mass. If you would like to attend Mass and have not signed up yet, please call the office or go to our website at: <http://stfredericchurch.org/reopen>. Once signed up, you will be able to attend each week at the designated time.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. For the safety of others, masks are required while in church. As a reminder, please be conscious to practice physical distancing from other people who are not part of your household, including entering and exiting.

Even though we've instituted strict safety measures such as sanitizing all touch points after each Mass and removing books and materials from the pews, there is nothing we can do to completely eliminate all risk. If you do not feel comfortable attending Mass, you should not attend. Archbishop Sample is continuing with the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

God bless,

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu

FORMED.org

During these "COVID Shutdown" times, many people have talked about binge-watching on Netflix or being glued to YouTube. Are you doing something to not just entertain yourself, but improve your faith life as well? Our subscription for Formed.org will soon be up for renewal, and we have to decide whether our parish can afford to continue it for another year. If you've tried it, you know there are an almost limitless number of high-quality resources, including movies, programs, and online books. If you haven't tried it yet, we strongly encourage you to do so, soon!

Please Pray for Those Who Have Died

Especially Beth Johnson, who died Thursday, June 25, 2020. Please keep Beth and her family in your prayers.

Especially Martin Scheer, who died Wednesday, July 1, 2020. Please keep Martin and his family in your prayers.
