Church Offertory

COVID-19 has had a tremendous negative impact on the Church's weekly offertory. Please continue to support the mission of St. Frederic Parish by dropping your envelopes into the mail slot at the Parish Center, mailing them, going to stfredericchurch.org/donations to donate online, or putting them into the collection basket at Mass.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Funeral Mass for Martin Scheer will be at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, July 21, 2020. Rosary will start at 9:30 a.m. Call the Office or talk to Sally to sign up to attend his funeral.

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

Romans 8:26-27

Matthew 13:24-43

God is always teaching His people, we hear in today's First Reading.

And what does He want us to know? That He has care for all of us, that though He is a God of justice, even those who defy and disbelieve Him may hope for His mercy if they turn to Him in repentance.

This divine teaching continues in the three parables that Jesus tells in the Gospel today. Each describes the emergence of the kingdom of God from the seeds sown by His works and preaching. The kingdom's growth is hidden—like the working of yeast in bread; it's improbable, unexpected—as in the way the tall mustard tree grows from the smallest of seeds.

Again this week's readings sound a note of questioning: Why does God permit the evil to grow alongside the good? Why does He permit some to reject the Word of His kingdom?

Because, as we sing in today's Psalm, God is slow to anger and abounding in kindness. He is just, Jesus assures us—evildoers and those who cause others to sin will be thrown into the fiery furnace at the end of the age. But by His patience, God is teaching us—that above all He desires repentance, and the gathering of all nations to worship Him and to glorify His name.

Even though we don't know how to pray as we ought, the Spirit will intercede for us, Paul promises in today's Epistle. But first we must turn and call upon Him, we must commit ourselves to letting the good seed of His Word bear fruit in our lives.

So we should not be deceived or lose heart when we see weeds among the wheat, truth and holiness mixed with error, injustice and sin.

For now, He makes His sun rise on the good and the bad (see Matthew 5:45). But the harvest draws near. Let's work that we might be numbered among the righteous children—who will shine like the sun in the kingdom of the Father.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all those who have attended Mass during our limited reopening of Masses. With Columbia County in Phase II of reopening, we are able to allow more than 25 people to attend Mass. If you would like to attend Mass and have not signed up yet, please call the office or go to our website at: <http://stfredericchurch.org/reopen>. Once signed up, you will be able to attend each week at the designated time. If you see or talk to others, please let them know that we have room and would love to have them attend Mass!

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. For the safety of others, masks are required while in church. As a reminder, please be conscious to practice physical distancing from other people who are not part of your household, including entering and exiting.

Even though we've instituted strict safety measures such as sanitizing all touch points after each Mass and removing books and materials from the pews, there is nothing we can do to completely eliminate all risk. If you do not feel comfortable attending Mass, you should not attend. Archbishop Sample is continuing with the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

God bless,

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu

During these "COVID Shutdown" times, many people have talked about binge-watching on Netflix or being glued to YouTube. Are you doing something to not just entertain yourself, but improve your faith life as well? If you've tried it, you know there are an almost limitless number of high-quality resources, including movies, Bible study, podcasts, audiobooks, and online books. There are many Spanish titles too! If you haven't tried it yet, give it a try.

September 25—27, 2020 Women's Silent Retreat

Our Lady of Peace Retreat in Beaverton is pleased to announce that Fr. Brian Mullady, O.P., will be preaching the retreat. His theme is "Growth in Prayer". The weekend begins with dinner on Friday evening and concludes after brunch on Sunday. For inquiries or to register, please phone the retreat house at 503-649-7127 or email sisters@olpretreat.org. The suggested donation is $172 for the weekend. Commuter rates available.
