Most of us are the foreigners, the non-Israelites, about whom today’s First Reading prophesies.

Coming to worship the God of Israel, we stand in the line of faith epitomized by the Canaanite woman in today’s Gospel. Calling to Jesus as Lord and Son of David, this foreigner shows her great faith in God’s covenant with Israel.

Jesus tests her faith three times. He refuses to answer her cry. Then, He tells her His mission is only to Israelites. Finally, He uses “dog,” an epithet used to disparage non-Israelites (see Matthew 7:6). Yet she persists, believing that He alone offers salvation.

In this family drama, we see fulfilled Isaiah’s prophecy and the promise we sing of in today’s Psalm. In Jesus, God makes known among all the nations His way and His salvation (see John 14:6).

At the start of salvation history, God called Abraham (see Genesis 12:2). He chose his offspring, Israel, from all the nations on the face of the earth to build His covenant kingdom (see Deuteronomy 7:6–8; Isaiah 41:8).

In God’s plan, Abraham was to be the father of many nations (see Romans 4:16–17). Israel was to be the firstborn of a worldwide family of God, made up of all who believe what the Canaanite professes—that Jesus is Lord (see Exodus 4:22–23; Romans 5:13–24).

Jesus came first to restore the kingdom to Israel (see Acts 1:6; 13:46). But His ultimate mission was the reconciliation of the world, as Paul declares in today’s Epistle.

In the Mass we join all peoples in doing Him homage. As Isaiah foretold, we come to His holy mountain, the heavenly Jerusalem, to offer sacrifice at His altar (see Hebrews 12:22–24, 28). With the Canaanite, we take our place at the Master’s table to be fed as His children.

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Scott Hahn

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I am happy to see new people attending church each week. I have missed you and am so glad to see you again. I would encourage you to attend as often as you can. We still have room for you at all six scheduled Mass times. If you haven't attended Mass and would like to, call the office at 503-397-0148 or go https://https://stfredericchurch.org/reopen .

For a complete schedule of Masses, please look at the front of the bulletin. Adoration will start this Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. I can't add a Mass with this because we need to minimize the time that people are inside the church, together. Adoration will be limited to 1 hour. There will be no singing. If you want to attend, you must sign up by calling the office or at the website at stfredericchurch.org/reopen .

During this time of introspection about the effects of the pandemic worldwide and in our communities, I would also like to encourage people to request Mass Intentions for other people (such as on a birthday, loss of a job, or sickness), as well as continue the traditional Catholic practice of offering Intentions for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. The recommended donation is $10.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Marandu

You can write a check, with FORMED in the memo or through the website, putting FORMED in the comment box at the bottom. Thank you to those who have donated!
