Financials

Online Giving

- Saves money on Church envelopes
- Saves time
- Saves money on printing checks
- Helps St. Frederic with consistent giving

Use the “recurring” feature to donate on a weekly or monthly basis. Please don’t forget to set up recurring giving for the maintenance fund.

Note, we can’t accept donations for St. Vincent de Paul through the website, so please bring those to church or send them to the office. Write a separate check for them because we cannot process them through our office.

To give online go to <https://stfredericchurch.org/donations>

Matthew 16:13–20

“Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!” Paul exclaims in today’s Epistle. Today’s Psalm, too, takes up the triumphant note of joy and thanksgiving. Why? Because in the Gospel, the heavenly Father reveals the mystery of His kingdom to Peter.

With Peter, we rejoice that Jesus is the anointed Son promised to David, the one prophesied to build God’s temple and reign over an everlasting kingdom (see 2 Samuel 7).

What Jesus calls “my Church” is the kingdom promised to David’s son (see Isaiah 9:1–7). As we hear in today’s First Reading, Isaiah foretold that the keys to David’s kingdom would be given to a new master, who would rule as father to God’s people.

Jesus, the root and offspring of David, alone holds the kingdom’s keys (see Revelation 1:18; 3:7; 22:16). In giving those keys to Peter, Jesus fulfills that prophecy, establishing Peter—and all who succeed him—as holy father of His Church.

His Church, too, is the new house of God—the spiritual temple founded on the “rock” of Peter, and built up out of the living stones of individual believers (see 1 Peter 2:5).

Abraham was called “the rock” from which the children of Israel were hewn (see Isaiah 51:1–2). And Peter becomes the rock from which God raises up new children of God (see Matthew 3:9).

The word Jesus uses—“church” (ekklesia in Greek)—was used in the Greek translation of the Old Testament for the “assembly” of God’s children after the Exodus (see Deuteronomy 18:16; 31:30).

His Church is the “assembly of the firstborn” (see Hebrews 12:23; Exodus 4:23–24), established by Jesus’ exodus (see Luke 9:31). Like the Israelites, we are baptized in water, led by the Rock, and fed with spiritual food (see 1 Corinthians 10:1–5).

Gathered at His altar, in the presence of angels, we sing His praise and give thanks to His holy name.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

It is so nice to see people slowly trickling back to church! I am happy to see a few new people attending church each week. I have missed you and am so glad to see you again. I have been praying for you and continue to do so! I would encourage you to attend Mass as often as you can. We still have room for you at all six scheduled Mass times. If you haven't attended Mass and would like to, call the office at 503-397-0148 or go <https://stfredericchurch.org/reopen>

I have added silent Adoration to the schedule on Friday at 9:00 a.m. I can't add a Mass with this because we need to minimize the time that people are inside the church, together. Adoration will be limited to one hour. There will be no singing.

During this time of introspection about the effects of the pandemic worldwide and in our communities. I would also like to encourage people to request Mass Intentions for other people (such as on a birthday, loss of a job, or sickness), as well as continue the traditional Catholic practice of offering Intentions for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. The recommended donation is $10.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Marandu

Interested in Catholic Faith

St. Frederic will soon begin a new journey in faith to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. These sessions also are opportunities for you, and others that you may wish to invite, to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about Church teaching and practices. These gatherings are for inquirers and are open to people who are unbaptized, baptized Christians from Protestant backgrounds, as well as current parishioners and fallen away Catholics.

Please give us a call if you would like further information at 503-397-3323 or email at timari@q.com.

Million Rosary March

Catholic men and women are uniting to repent, pray and fast for our nation for 100 days from August 15 to December 8, 2020. Information can be found at <https://millionrosarymarch.com>

Youth Group

The youth group is still accepting bottles/cans. You are more than welcome to bring them. Please call before dropping them off so that we know they are here.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Victor Jr. and Brenda Sanchez on the baptism of their daughter, Sofia Sanchez on Sunday, August 9, 2020.
