TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: LUKE 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

ADULTS: When have you done more than was required of you in the service of others?

CHILDREN: When have you done something extra for someone in your family without being asked? What did you learn from this?

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

Pray especially for good weather, vocations, pro-life and for world peace!

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. According to an account by fifteenth-century Dominican, Alan de la Roch, Mary appeared to St. Dominic in 1206 after he had been praying and doing severe penances because of his lack of success in combating the Albigensian heresy. Mary praised him for his valiant fight against the heretics and then gave him the Rosary as a mighty weapon, explained its uses and efficacy, and told him to preach it to others.

"Since the prayers of the Rosary come from such excellent sources — from Our Lord Himself, from inspired Scripture, and from the Church — it is not surprising that the Rosary is so dear to our Blessed Mother and so powerful with heaven.

"If we consider the power of the Rosary as seen in its effects, we find a great abundance of proofs of its wonderful value. Many are the favors granted to private individuals through its devout recitation: there are few devoted users of the Rosary who cannot testify to experiencing its power in their own lives. If we turn to history, we see many great triumphs of the Rosary. Early tradition attributes the defeat of the Albigensians at the Battle of Muret in 1213 to the Rosary. But even those who do not accept this tradition will admit that St. Pius V attributed the great defeat of the Turkish fleet on the first Sunday of October, 1571, to the fact that at the same time the Rosary confraternities at Rome and elsewhere were holding their processions. Accordingly, he ordered a commemoration of the Rosary to be made on that day. Two years later, Gregory XIII allowed the celebration of a feast of the Rosary in churches having an altar dedicated to the Rosary. In 1671, Clement X extended the feast to all Spain. A second great victory over the Turks, who once, like the Russians, threatened the ruin of Christian civilization, occurred on August 5, 1716, when Prince Eugene defeated them at Peterwardein in Hungary. Thereupon Clement XI extended the feast of the Rosary to the whole Church.

"Today, when dangers far greater than those of the ancient Turks threaten not only Christianity but all civilization, we are urged by our Blessed Mother to turn again to the Rosary for help. If men in sufficient numbers do this, and at the same time carry out the other conditions that she has laid down, we have the greater reason for confidence that we will be delivered from our dangers." -- Mary in our Life by Fr. William G. Most

Dear beloved in the Lord, Faith is to accept the mystery of God revealed in Jesus Christ and to translate it into coherent actions of love and forgiveness. The apostles found it so hard that they prayed to the Lord, “Increase our faith.” Jesus Christ invites them to have faith at least as much as of a mustard seed so that they can accomplish anything they ask in faith. When we have strong faith in Jesus, we are confident in facing any situations of life.

We are like servants who receive a duty from the master. As the servant does not deserve to be praised or thanked for the work done, so too we asked to do our responsibilities with dutifulness and with no expectation of special reward or acknowledgment. But it is where there is a deep love for the master that a servant is so committed and does his best with no expectations of reward. Our joy is in doing all that is possible for our divine Master. He has put trust in us and placed his mission in our hands. We shall never betray this trust of the Master in us. We should work hard in the vineyard of the Lord and having done everything to the best of possibilities we need to be saying, “We are unworthy servant; we have only done our duty.” Amen. My continued prayers and God’s blessings - Rev. Bose Jujvarapu. HGN

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT:

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - From today’s second reading, we are made to realize, like Timothy, that Christ’s call is meant for us all. Good stewards realize they have everything necessary to live for Christ. “Stir up the fire that is already burning inside you.” Another way to express this thought in the vocabulary of stewardship is, “Use your gifts now! Serve the Lord now! Get involved now! God put the fire inside you but you have to stir up the flame! Let it burn!” Everyone can give witness to Christ’s presence in the world, and most of us can do more than one thing for the Lord. How exactly do you “stir into flame” God’s unique gifts you hold within you?

ADULT FAITH FORMATION CLASSES:

On Wednesday, October 2nd, we began an adult formation session and will be continuing each faith formation evening throughout the Faith Formation school year. It will be held in the old chapel in the church from 7:15 p.m. until 7:45 p.m. (approximately 30 minutes). Our presenter is Zach Schertz. Zach is a recent member to our parish who has a bachelor’s degree in Religious and Theological Studies from St. Edward’s University in Austin, Tx. who desires to help adults/families grow in their adult faith. The sessions will feature topics from the Catechism of the Catholic Church... the bible, the church, Catholic teachings, moral teachings and other areas of our Catholic faith. Bibles will be available or bring your own. This will be concurrent with our youth sessions allowing parents a great opportunity to also grow in your faith as well as any parish member. Hope to see you there!
