TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today Lent begins. Ash Wednesday initiates the forty days of the Lenten fast, but since Sundays are not tallied in the days of fasting, today is the solemn opening of the forty days of Lent. The Church has work to do today, principally the calling forward of those chosen (the proper word is elected) for the Easter sacraments. Some of those who have been catechumens may now make a transition to a new way of life as the “elect.” For them, this Lent will be a time of “purification” and “enlightenment.” For us who accompany them, it is a time of helping them discern God’s call and prepare for new life.

This year, while the readings from the third year of the Lectionary cycle are usually read, they are set aside on certain Sundays for the benefit of the elect. We turn then to the readings from Year A, and we give those who journey to the font of baptism three extraordinary companions. In the Gospels for those days, we meet the woman of Samaria and the man born blind, and we come to the tomb of Lazarus three days after his death. Many bishops celebrate the Rite of Election on or near today, affirming God’s choice for these new faithful, and also offering them the solidarity of many companions. In 2013, over 38,000 adults entered the baptismal waters in the United States, a remarkable testimony to the vigor of our tradition of receiving and nurturing adult faith.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Las cenizas que se nos pusieron en la frente el miércoles pasado ya están borradas, pero las palabras que nos dijeron deben sonar aún en nuestras almas. Tradicionalmente se dice: "Recuerda que del polvo venimos y al polvo retornaremos." Y aunque hoy en muchos lugares se dice: "Conviértete y cree en el Evangelio" el mensaje para oídos latinos es el mismo. Es un mensaje que nos saca de nuestro egoísmo recordándonos lo que los antiguos Toltecas ya sabían: esta vida es un sueño y el que muere despierta a la vida verdadera. Viviendo el Evangelio en esta vida nos prepara para la vida eterna.

Las cenizas y esas frases dan un mensaje que lleva la imagen de la tierra que se somete para cultivarse. A veces la tierra se quema para que de sus cenizas venga vida nueva. Las cenizas que se nos pusieron no son para despreciar nuestra vida sino para amarla. De esa manera seremos cultivados por el ayuno, la oración y la caridad que hagamos durante la Cuaresma, sometiéndolo el polvo de nuestro cuerpo para dar fruto eterno.

SERVIR AL POBRE

Sé diligente en servir al pobre. Ama a los pobres, hónralos igual que honrarías al mismo Cristo.

HAVE THE BEST LENT EVER...REDISCOVER JESUS

Today, some members of our parish will be distributing to you for free, Matthew Kelly's newest book: Rediscover Jesus. Matthew is a New York Times bestselling author and founder of Dynamic Catholic. Many of you will remember the Rediscover Catholicism book by Matthew Kelly, that was distributed a few years ago in our parish. The goals of the Dynamic Catholic books are to inspire people to discover the genius of Catholicism and inspire Catholics to become a better version of themselves. Rediscover Jesus is our Lenten gift to you. Matthew has given us some suggestions on how to enjoy his latest book. First, is like any other book: Read your book from cover to cover. Another suggestion: read one chapter a day from Rediscover Jesus, and allow the book to guide you. "This is a perfect way to experience the 40 days of Lent". Lastly, Matthew offers an email program: Best Lent Ever. Each day during Lent you will receive an email with a short video featuring Matthew Kelly and a member of the Dynamic Catholic Team using his book, Rediscover Jesus. This email program is absolutely free. dynamicatholic.com/lent. St. Patrick will be offering a Book Study for anyone that is interested in using Rediscover Jesus in a small group. SECOND COLLECTION FOR THE 2016 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Commitment Weekend for the 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal will be held at all the Masses next weekend at St. Patrick. Please give generously. The envelopes for the Appeal can be found in the church. This year we plan to allocate the parish's 25% share for the needy, the Upper Room and the Mother Teresa Maternity Home. Every time a family has a breakthrough, a child finds safety and hope, a marginalized individual finds the strength to rebuild a life of dignity, a seminarian moves closer to ordination, or a student is able to stay in Catholic school, the Catholic Foundation thinks of its donors to the Annual Catholic Appeal.
