ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
W.A.T.CH. RETREAT
WHAT IS W.A.T.CH. ?

W.A.T.CH. stands for “We Are The Church”. When we say “We are The Church” we mean that the Church is more than a beautiful, holy, consecrated sanctuary. It’s also the people that make it up. The entire community, here and throughout the world, form the body of Christ. Together, ALL OF US are the Church. The W.A.T.Ch. retreats are for parishioners given by parishioners under the guidance of Father John Kha Tran, Deacon Steve Klak, and Deacon Dennis Hayes. It is a weekend of community and getting to know one another. It is a weekend of spiritual reflection – where we are, and where we want to be.

How often do we say, “I would love to make a retreat, but I don’t have the time”, or “it’s too far away. Now we have the opportunity to make a retreat right here in our own parish. It starts at 7:30 AM, Saturday morning in Kolbe Hall and concludes at approximately 4:00 PM Sunday afternoon. A $40.00 donation is requested, but if you are unable to give this amount, please give what you can – please don’t allow the amount to keep you from making the retreat. All you need to bring is yourself, a change of clothes, a towel and bedding (pillow, sleeping bag or blanket). All meals are provided. The sacrament of Reconciliation will be available for those who desire and Mass will be celebrated Sunday morning at 8:00 AM in the church.
