"There is a deep human connectedness which we take for granted. Legalized abortion reveals how little we understand this sacred bond of life. The continued practice of abortion further unravels the fabric of our families and communities. Let us continue to pray for expectant mothers and their children. May that expectation turn into the hope of lives woven together by the mercy of God. We pray also for one another that we may continue to be the missionaries of gospel joy brought into life. May the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary sustain our efforts to build a culture of life with the wisdom and charity of her Son, Jesus."

~Bishop Jaime Soto
