

SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

The Lord comforted his people, who were exiled to Babylon, by telling them of the new covenant he planned to make with them. The Lord declared he would write his law upon their hearts, and that he would forgive their evil and forget the sins they had committed in the past.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

Though God could have heeded his Son's prayers and spared him suffering, Jesus accepted his Father's will. Through his suffering, he learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation for all people.

Gospel: John 12:20-33

Jesus was afraid of the suffering he knew he must face. Yet he explained just as a grain of wheat must die to be harvested, he had to face his hour of suffering to glorify his Father's name. Jesus explained that once he was lifted from earth, he could draw all people to himself, lifting them to eternal life.

*Catechism*CONNECTION

“It is called the sacrament of confession, since the disclosure or confession of sins to a priest is an essential element of this sacrament. In a profound sense it is also a ‘confession’ – acknowledgement and praise – of the holiness of God and of his mercy toward sinful man.”

“It is called the sacrament of forgiveness, since by the priest’s sacramental absolution God grants the penitent ‘pardon and peace.’”

“It is called the sacrament of reconciliation because it imparts to the sinner the love of God who reconciles: ‘Be reconciled to God’ (2 Cor 5:20). He who lives by God’s merciful love is ready to respond to the Lord’s call: ‘Go; first be reconciled to your brother’ (Mt. 5:24).”

PARISH LIFE

TEACHINGS AND TRADITIONS OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH:

This Adult Formation activity meets each Sunday after the 10:00 a.m. Mass in the front foyer of Sacred Heart Church. Coordinator: Barbara Kelly

Today's topic (March 22nd) Sacrament of Holy Eucharist: Symbols of Bread and Wine Facilitator – Fr. Paul Campbell

Jesus took, blessed, broke, and gave bread to his followers when he fed the multitudes. This action is reminiscent of what he did at the Last Supper. He took, blessed broke and gave the bread to his disciples. He took, blessed, and shared the cup of wine, the cup of his blood, with his disciples. In order to understand the Eucharist, we must first understand the fullness of meaning behind the sacramental symbols of bread and wine.

March 29 – Holy Week: The Triduum
