REFLECTION

THE GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE

In Jesus' day there were two dominant groups within Jewish society – the Pharisees and the Sadducees. Jesus crossed swords with both of them. Today it is the Sadducees who confront the Lord. The Sadducees were an elite aristocratic group – a kind of club of socially aspirational and religiously conservative men. They rejected most of the Old Testament, accepting only the Pentateuch (the first five books) as divinely inspired. Unlike the Pharisees, they did not believe in the afterlife, the spirit world or the resurrection of the body.

Intent on backing Jesus into a corner, the Sadducees present a bizarre scenario concerning a woman who appears to be something of a Black Widow, in that she has made her way through seven brothers, each of whom died after marrying her. In line with the law and Jewish culture at this time a woman whose husband died was offered future security by marrying any surviving male siblings. The question is, of course, whose wife will she be after death?

Typically, the Lord refuses to answer question head on. He rather points to the fact that marriage is a human institution which comes to an end with death, 'till death do us part'. That is not to say that those who are married are not reunited after death – surely they are – but they are reunited in a different way and in a different relationship before God. Beyond the confines of this world there is no need for marriage because both man and wife are joined together in their love and worship of God – in the same way as the angels are.

God is the God of the living, and when we die in Christ we receive the gift of eternal life and our bodies will rise again. This is the central event and a basic truth of our faith. We look to the resurrection as our greatest hope, assuring us of our eternal destiny: Christ in us the hope of glory.

LITURGY

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

A king tortured a Jewish family, and tried to make them violate the laws. They all refused to give in and violate the laws. All of the family members told the king they would rather die at his hands than surrender their hope of being resurrected by God.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

Paul prays that the Thessalonians will be strengthened by God. He also asks them to pray that God's word will continue to spread, despite the persecution of Christians that was occurring at that time.

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

Jesus encountered some Sadducees who did not believe in resurrection. Jesus refuted them by quoting Moses, who called the Lord the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Jesus then said. "God is not the God of the dead but of the living. All are alive for him."

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20a

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC PRAYER MEETING

The Charismatic prayer meeting will meet on Mondays at 7:00 pm in the Saint Joseph Room. Meetings include prayer, praise, songs, worship and teachings, and an openness to living a New Life in the Holy Spirit - all with a focus on developing a more active faith life and in our personal relationship with Jesus Christ. For more info contact Jeff Tucker, 973-726-9011.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We Are Sorry

This week the young people of the parish preparing for Reconciliation reflected on penance and the desire to heal the hurt caused by sin. Living a life in Christ demands a continuing conversion of heart, a life of penance, with hope in God's mercy and trust in his grace. How do we as a parish share in the Paschal mystery, the great mystery of Christ's love, the mystery of mercy?

YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Group meets every Monday, 6:30 to 8:00 pm in the parish center. Join us and bring a friend.

ADOPT-A-FAMILY CHRISTMAS PROJECT

It's time to ADOPT your family for Christmas again this year! The Adopt-A-Family team will be set up in Cassidy Hall after the Masses on the weekend of November 16-17. Please come by and help a needy family this Holiday Season.

We have 40 more families than last year.

There will be a special collection for two different and important causes: Catholic Home Missions and the Archdiocese for Military Services.

The Catholic Home Missions assist dioceses and parishes in our country that simply do not have the financial resources to provide even basic pastoral services to Catholics. These missions are located in areas such as Appalachia, the South and the Rocky Mountain States.

A portion of the funds will also support the Archdiocese for the Military Services. This Archdiocese serves the pastoral needs of those in military installations in many countries as well as patients in VA Medical Center. Please be as generous as possible when we have this collection on November 24th.
