Sacramental Preparation Covenant

Family Commitment

At your child(ren)'s baptism, you promised God "...to...make it your constant care to bring your child up in the practice of the faith." In accordance with this promise, you make the following commitment for Sacramental Preparation of your child(ren):

Yes No

- I will set the example of committed Christian discipleship by faithfully attending and bringing my child(ren) to weekly Saturday/Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. I understand we will be given a Mass Card. This card is taken to mass each week and stamped.
- I will teach my child the prayers by praying them often at home. I will encourage and foster my child to use his/her own words to pray.
- I will bring my child to weekly formation sessions and complete home activities with my child to foster love and understanding of the faith. I understand I must attend all parent meetings.

Faith Formation Team Commitment

We recognize and acknowledge parents as the primary educators of their children. (CCC 2223) The Faith Formation Team of Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church promises to encourage and support your family in walking this journey with your child(ren). We promise to pray that the Holy Spirit guide your child(ren) and family. We promise to reinforce the faith they are learning at home or in school. We promise to bring parents and child(ren) together to interact and share faith in engaging ways, allowing them an easier opportunity to continue conversations and activities in the home - the domestic church. We are here to support parents as they keep the promises they made at their child(ren)'s baptism to be the "the first teacher of your child's faith" by providing authentic Catholic resources, timely communications and adult catechesis to strengthen you in your faith life.

I understand that I have entered into a covenant with God, my child(ren) and Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church Faith Formation Team, whose primary role is to lead our entire family into a more committed, lifelong relationship with the Lord Jesus and knowledge of our Catholic faith.
