SCRIPTURES

July 2, 2017– 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: A woman in Shunem believed strongly in the holiness of the prophet Elisha. To reward her, Elisha promised that she and her aging husband would, within the year, be the parents of a son. (2 Kings: 4, 8-11, 14-16A)

SECOND READING: PAUL EXPLAINS TO THE ROMANS THAT BY IMMERSION ON WATER AT BAPTISM, THEY "DIE" TO THEIR SINS; BY RISING FROM THE WATER, THEY RISE FROM "DEATH AND SIN" TO NEW LIFE IN CHRIST. (ROMANS 6: 3-4, 8-11)

GOSPEL: WITH SIMPLICITY, JESUS TELLS HIS APOSTLES THAT EVERYONE SHOULD LOVE HIM ABOVE ALL OTHERS—FATHER, MOTHER, SON OR DAUGHTER. HE ADDS, "HE WHO WELCOMES YOU, WELCOMES ME." (MATTHEW 10: 37-42)

STEWARDSHIP by the BOOK-June 25, 2017

The Psalmist assures us that "the Lord hears the poor." Often, however, He answers their need through the generous gifts of good stewards.

TURNING TO GOD

It has become so easy to get distracted and pulled from our course, our focus. With the troubled times we are all faced with, coupled with our own trials and tribulations, we tend to forget to turn to God for help.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest...for my yoke is easy, and my burden light." Matthew 11:28-30 reaffirms to us that God's help is here for the taking when we are tired and overburdened, helpless and hopeless. As nations, communities and individuals struggling not only to keep true to religious, public and humanitarian obligations, the burden the Bible speaks of does not end here, but also includes the struggle of personal success, as we try to compete with the demands of the world today.

God is here for us. He always was and always will be. The Bible tells us that back in the days of Moses when he felt over-whelmed with the enormous task of leading his people from captivity in Egypt to the promised land, that he too turned to God many times for help. God was there for Moses, providing him with wisdom, guidance and the direction that he should select others to assist him in accomplishing his mission. Like Moses, as we become overburdened with all that we see, feel and hear, and we find that we are becoming affected-spiritually, mentally, emotionally, and physically-we should remember to ask God for help. We cannot let our faith in God and His help be shaken.

In stressful situations, the best thing we can do is to turn to God for His wisdom. Ask the Holy Spirit for decisiveness. Assure ourselves in times of weakness that we have strength, just as Jesus did while carrying out the will of the Father. God knows what we're dealing with.

Remember the old cliché -do the right thing and the right thing happens? Well, sometimes we may not see results right away, and sometimes we may not ever see them at all, but God does not forget. Through our faith, we can be assured that the good thoughts, deeds and decisions we make on a daily basis will bring us through our times of crisis, and in the end, will lead us ever closer to our destination-everlasting happiness for eternity in heaven.
