SCRIPTURES:

MAY 27th- Trinity Sunday

First Reading: Moses asks the people if they have ever seen anything as great as the actions of God. He reminds them that there is only one God and all people must keep His commandments. If the laws of God are kept, his people will prosper all their lives.
(Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40)

Second Reading: Paul explains that through the Holy Spirit we become children of God. As heirs of God we must be willing to suffer as Christ had if we are to share in His glory. (Romans 8: 14-17)

GOSPEL: Jesus asks His disciples to go to other nations and teach others all that they have learned. He asks that these new followers be baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
(Matthew 28: 16-20)

Stewardship by the Book May 20, 2018

St. Paul reminds us today that all of our gifts have their source in the Holy Spirit and that those gifts are given "for the common good." What gifts are mine to share?

PENTECOST THE BIRTHDAY OF THE CHURCH

Today we celebrate one of our most important feasts--that of Pentecost. It celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the birth of the Church. The second chapter of Acts tells of this event and uses great imagery to describe it--a powerful wind, tongues of fire, people speaking in many languages, and the joy of the Apostles. It is truly moving. This group of twelve men is transformed into a Community of Faith on fire with zeal to spread the Word of God. Now they understand the true nature of the Death, Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus and the Gift of the Spirit. It is from this small group of disciples that the Church has grown into a worldwide Community of Faith.

The primary meaning of the word Church is not a building where people worship, but a community of people which accepts the Risen Christ in their lives and who gather to share their faith and celebrate His Presence.

When we gather we do certain things:

- We recall our past experience of Jesus in Scripture.
- We celebrate His risen and living presence among us through signs and symbols in the Eucharist.
- We then go out to share the Good News of Jesus with others in Ministry.

Jesus promised that He would send His Spirit and that He would remain with us to the end of time. It is this same Spirit who guides the Church today. It is up to us as members of the Community of Faith at Star of the Sea to foster a sense of unity and commitment to living out the Gospel in our lives.

WE ARE THE CHURCH TODAY.

*Sincerely in Christ,
Father Chris*

Bins will be marked by both church entrances for donations. Thank you, Fr. Chris

"By praying the Rosary, I feel as if I am giving a bunch of flowers, imperfect in every way, to a very gifted florist to arrange for me. The Blessed Mother Mary transforms my disarray into a splendid bouquet and presents it to God." Stephanie Bowen, deejay, KNOM Radio Mission, Anchorage, Alaska

Morning Prayer: Dear Lord, thank you for this day and for your many gifts and blessings. I ask that you help me be a better person today than I was yesterday. Amen.
