SCRIPTURES:

June 17th– Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, "As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do."
(Ezechiel 17:22-24)

Second Reading: Paul acknowledges "that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies." We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please Him in this life.

(II Corinthians 5: 6-10)

GOSPEL: The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God's community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.

(Mark 4: 26-34)

Stewardship by the Book June 10, 2018

Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden because of their disobedience. But Jesus says in today's Gospel that when we are obedient to God's will—when we use our gifts to serve one another-- we become part of His family. "Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to Me."

GROWTH IN FAITH

On Sunday, May 20th, we concluded our Religious Education Program for the 2017-2018 year. The classroom instruction has ended, but our faith journey continues as we live out the Gospel message throughout our lives.

We are grateful to all who have been part of this special Ministry to the children of our parish. Our program could not continue to grow without the support and participation of so many people:

Our Parents- (the first teachers of the Faith) who have sown the seed through Baptism and accepted the responsibility of training their children in the practice of the Faith. Your active participation in our programs and attendance at our meetings enable us to reinforce and nurture the faith development of our children.

Our Catechists, who by their faith, lived example, and sharing of the teachings of the Church, have enabled our children to grow in their love and knowledge of God.

Our Children's Liturgy of the Word Helpers, who have made God's Word come alive for our young children. Religious Instruction must flow from the Word of God and it is at CLOW that each child is invited to open the Word and share what they believe.

Our adult Table Aides, student aides, decorating committee, refreshment committee and all those who assisted us in such a variety of ways throughout the year. Your continued presence enabled us to grow as a faith community.

We are already busy planning for next year. We hope to see our program continue to develop as we work together to nourish the seed of Faith which was sown in the Sacrament of Baptism.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we ask you to guide our children and their families this summer and always so that we may grow ever closer to you. Amen.

Blessings of Peace,

Jaye Hedrick
