SCRIPTURES:

August 25th—Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: ISAIAH PORTRAYS A TIME WHEN PEOPLE FROM MANY NATIONS WILL GATHER IN JERUSALEM AND PROCLAIM GOD'S GLORY. GOD'S MESSENGERS WILL TEACH MANY NATIONS ABOUT GOD. JUST AS THE ISRAELITES BRING OFFERINGS, THESE MESSENGERS WILL BRING PEOPLE FROM ALL NATIONS TO WORSHIP. (ISAIAH 66:18-21)

SECOND READING: THE HEBREWS ARE TOLD THAT GOD DISCIPLINES THOSE HE LOVES. WHEN A PARENT DISCIPLINES A CHILD, THE CHILD USUALLY LEARNS WHAT IS EXPECTED OF HIM. THE HEBREWS ARE ENCOURAGED TO FACE LIFE'S TRIALS AS A FORM OF DISCIPLINE, AND ATTEMPT TO LEARN SOMETHING FROM THEM. (HEBREWS 12:5-7, 11-13)

GOSPEL: JESUS WARNS THE DOORS TO GOD'S KINGDOM WILL BE LOCKED FOR THOSE WHO IGNORED HIS WISHES. MANY PEOPLE WILL COME FROM ALL NATIONS AND TAKE THEIR PLACE IN GOD'S KINGDOM. OTHERS WILL NOT BE RECOGNIZED BY GOD, AND HE WILL REJECT THEM. (LUKE 13: 22-30)

STEWARDSHIP by the BOOK- August 11th, 2019

In today's second reading, St. Paul encourages us not to grow weary or lose heart, but to persevere in following Jesus. Our willingness to give of ourselves, even in the face of conflict and division, is one way to measure our discipleship.

STEWARDSHIP by the BOOK- August 18th, 2019

Today's reading from Isaiah describes the Israelites bringing their offering to the Lord "in clean vessels." The gift of myself—my patient endurance and fidelity to the will of God — is as important as the monetary gift I offer.

Prayer: Awareness of God's Presence

Prayer is a response to the invitation of God's presence already with us. It is an attitude of the heart and is expressed in many ways. It is as varied and unique as you and me. There is no one way of praying. Each of us has experienced many prayer forms throughout our lives. At certain times the rosary or other vocal prayer is expressive of our relationship with God. At other times, we may feel drawn to the prayer of meditation, or to the beauty of creation which evokes in us a sense of praise and wonder. Liturgical prayer and communal prayer gather us into the richness of a praying community, while solitude calls us to listen to God in the depths of our hearts.

Whatever the form of your prayer is, you can begin by quietly thinking of some of the different ways in which you experience the presence of God in your life:

- In relationships with family, friends, neighbors & others
- In the kindness & generosity of the people around you
- In those times when you are challenged to make difficult decisions
- In the beauty and grandeur of God's creation
- In Scripture, Liturgy, and quiet moments in Church

Our relationship with God will not grow unless we spend quality time and experience His loving presence. All our excuses about not having time to pray become meaningless when we realize the priceless value of developing our relationship with God. If we have space in our schedule to watch TV or browse the Internet, we have enough minutes to pray. We need to find time in our everyday life to develop and nurture our relationship with God. Through prayer we discover how present God is to us, guiding and encouraging us along the way. Prayer will help us to recognize that we do have a lifelong Divine Companion who will always be with us, who will rejoice with us in our good times and grieve with us in our difficult days. We all need to find the things in our ordinary daily life that will nurture this attitude of prayer and deepen our relationship with our Loving God.

During these more relaxed days of summer, may we take the time to become more aware of God's loving presence in our lives. REST IN IT - BE ASSURED OF IT - RESPOND TO IT THROUGH PRAYER.

*Sincerely in Christ,
Father Chris*
