ORDINARY TIME

Wasted time is not a prized commodity in twenty-first century society. We are a people ruled by the clock. Time is money because time is to be filled with purposeful, controlled activity which is productive of things which can be sold. We are convinced that we must be in control of time. The last thing the productive American would want to do is waste time playing around with realities that do not produce a saleable commodity.

But, the Creator of heaven and earth is described by the scriptures as the original and best of players. Creative activity is playful and creative people do not feel that what they do is a job. Creative people also have a sense that their creativity and all that they fashion in the creative spirit are gifts they have received. The Christian can speak of this and the contemplative vision which sees all reality as a gift of grace. Our thankful response we call worship or Eucharist.

We cannot speak of Ordinary Time without speaking of Sunday. The every seven-day celebration of the Lord's Day is the basic structure upon which the Church Year is built. The great liturgical seasons of Advent-Christmas and Lent-Easter are more expansive celebrations of particular aspects of the one paschal mystery which we celebrate every Lord's Day. These special seasons focus our attention upon critical dimensions of one mystery, a mystery so overwhelming that we are compelled to separate out its various elements for particular attention. These two seasons in no way minimize the critical importance of the Sunday celebration throughout the rest of the year. Ordinary Time is not very ordinary at all. Ordinary Time, the celebration of Sunday, is the identifying mark of the Christian community which comes together remembering that on this first day of the week the Lord of Life was raised up and creation came at last to completion. Sunday as a day of play and worship is a sacrament of redeemed time. How we live Sunday proclaims to the world what we believe about redeemed time now and forever.

What happens in our Churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday, like all sacraments is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary time at all. This is the fabric of Christian living. ( Taken from the Saint Andrew Bible Missal)

The season of Advent-Christmas concluded on January 12th, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Ordinary Time began on January 13th and continues until Tuesday, February 25th. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 26th, and continues until April 11th. Easter Sunday is April 12th. Ordinary Time will resume again at the end of the Easter Season on the day after Pentecost, Monday, June 1st. Ordinary Time is the time to help us celebrate and appreciate the mystery of Jesus Christ and our Redemption.

*Sincerely in Christ,
Father Chris*

THANK YOU-- This year Our Lady Star of the Sea celebrated 60 years as a parish community. Following a beautiful Mass commemorating this milestone, was a celebration which saw our parishioners come together and share their unique cultures and food with their brothers and sisters of our parish community. It was such a success and it made me feel honored and blessed to be a part of this amazing community. I would like to take this opportunity to especially thank all of the ministers of our parish community who work very hard during the year to make Our Lady Star of the Sea Church be what it is day in and day out. I also would like to take a moment and thank all of YOU, for the wonderful gifts I received this Christmas, and for the continued prayers you offer. Your kindness and generosity have always touched me deeply and I want to wish all of you a very Happy and Blessed New Year. I am honored to serve you in the capacity of Deacon, and I am humbled by your continued generosity and support. May God Bless you and your families throughout this coming year, Deacon Alberto.
