Introduction to the Liturgy

Today Jesus continues his invitation to us to go beyond the letter of the law by calling us to go beyond our human tendencies toward hatred and revenge. In a world where demands for payback and “gotcha” moments are all too common, we are encouraged to lower the temperature of the rhetoric and reflect the heart of our merciful and loving God. If last year’s Year of Mercy is to mean anything, we are called to continue to show God’s mercy and forgiveness all through our lives.

SNOW & CHURCH

During the wintertime, many ask about a St. Joseph’s snow policy. I always offer the following: When there is a winter storm, it is best to err on the side of safety when you are thinking about coming to mass. Loretta will submit all parish weather cancellations on radio station WDEL 1150 and change the voicemail greeting advising whether or not there will be mass. Remember, I might not be able to make it from the friary at St. Paul’s if the snow is too deep or if the roads are treacherous. While this is not a specific policy, my best advice is to be prudent.

Fr. Paul

Question of the Week

Is there a person or situation in my life through which God is calling me to embrace Jesus’ revolutionary invitation to transform the world by love?

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

The journey of faith is a process that takes time. Please contact the pastor about taking steps leading to initiation as a Catholic Christian. In the Gospel of Matthew we find Jesus calling us to go beyond the laws of the Old Testament and into a greater understanding of these laws. We all have heard the phrase turn the other cheek, and for many of us we have repeated this spreading Christ message to others. But how many of us can say we have lived this and in those moments of anger or frustration have been able to truly turn the other cheek? This week contemplate what it truly means to turn the other cheek and to love your enemy. How can you apply this teaching in a practical manner? Brainstorm some ideas because while the theory is simple the application is difficult.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

: A good marriage is not recognized by the absence of conflict, but the presence of peacemaking. One sign of a healthy marital relationship is the desire of a husband and wife to seek unity when there are disagreements and differences.

PARENTING POINTERS

"I establish my covenant with you." (Genesis 9:11) God's covenant with Noah was a solemn promise. Talk with your child today about what it means to make a promise. Is it ever OK to break a promise?
