THOUGHTS FROM FATHER TED: I received a number of cards for my recent birthday and for the anniversary of my ordination. I want to express my gratitude for the thoughtfulness and support of those who sent cards. The awareness that people are responding to our ministry always gives a priest a great sense of fulfillment. The reason we choose the priesthood is to encourage and support people in their journey to the Kingdom of God. There is no greater way to support a priest than to develop your own spiritual life. It is always encouraging and uplifting to see people at Mass or stopping by the church to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament. I love it when the number of people at daily Mass increases or when people begin to receive more frequently the Sacrament of Penance. My goal for the last couple of years has been to find ways to help people to grow spiritually. Nothing could give me a greater sense of accomplishment than to see the visible signs of deeper spiritual growth. It would be wonderful to see our morning men's group increase in numbers or for scripture study groups to begin in our parishes. I know people are busy, but it is often a matter of choosing what is really important--what will be important for all eternity. Fr. Ted Skalsky
