THOUGHTS FROM FATHER TED: Last week I wrote that "...the miracle that God seeks today is a love from us who believe that is extraordinary." I truly believe that if we would be generous enough to show extraordinary love we would see many people coming to Christ. Jesus calls us to be his witnesses today through actions of great love. We see the example of this great love in the events that we will recall during the week that lies ahead of us. We will recall, with gratitude, the extraordinary love of the God who became one of us, suffered rejection and ridicule and was finally executed in the most painful and humiliating way. He choose to do all of this so that he might free us from everlasting death and bring us to share the glory of His resurrected life. Jesus told us that we are to love one another as He has loved us. In John's Gospel (Jn 17:20-21) we are told that our oneness with each other will enable others to believe that Jesus was sent by the Father. However, we cannot love in this way by our own efforts. We must open our hearts to the power of the Holy Spirit and ask that we be empowered to truly love in extraordinary ways. During this sacred season, let us ask for the grace to love--to truly love so that others may come to know the Lord Jesus as their Savior and Lord.
