Annual St. Joseph the Worker Fundraising Event

goes Virtual June 14 to Benefit Families in Crisis

The 16th Annual St. Joseph the Worker Fundraising Dinner will be held virtually this year - and all are invited to attend. The much-anticipated annual dinner will continue its long-standing tradition as a virtual event due to the health concerns of COVID-19.

To participate, join in on Facebook Live at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, June 14, at www.ccsww.org/stjoseph-live.

The virtual St. Joseph the Worker annual event will feature rousing bluegrass-style live music by the Severin Sisters and a long-standing crowd favorite, the raffle drawing for gift bags of quality local wine, Benedictine Brewery Beer, and Dutch Bros Coffee. CCS CEO Josh Graves will provide an update on mission fulfillment, and we will hear stories from those whose lives have been forever changed by St. Joseph's Shelter. Guests will be afforded the opportunity to support the vital ministries of St. Joseph Shelter during this unprecedented period in the lives of Marion County's most vulnerable citizens. To help sponsor the virtual event or receive additional information, please contact Scott Mischke at (503)856-7062 or smischke@ccsww.org.
