WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. Guided by the gospel and the examples of parish members, newcomers can find their place in the RCIA community of believers and discover their own relationship with Christ. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

BULLETIN: If you have information that you would like to place in the bulletin (community news, society/social news, etc.), please have it at the parish office no later than Tuesday morning.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Visits are made on a regular basis.
PLEASE NOTE: The new privacy laws limit the amount of information that we receive from the hospitals or nursing/convalescent homes. It is necessary that family or friends notify us of these admittances.

HANDICAPPED SEATING AREA: Please note that the front pew nearest to the side door is reserved to accommodate those who have need due to disability. Please be kind enough to leave this pew available for that purpose.

PARKING LOT: [St. Mary's] Please keep the emergency lane in front of the church clear at all times. It is essential that vehicles are able to get in and out of the parking lot in case of an emergency. Please adhere to the parking spaces as delineated. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners when you are backing up or turning to park or to exit the parking lot. There is ample parking on the upper level and supplemental parking on the side of the church.

FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

My Brothers and Sisters,

One thing we can be sure of is that kids will always ask questions, and since Gus is an active three-year-old, he asks a lot. Just the other day, he wanted to know where all the dinosaurs went. So I told him that they turned into trees and that's why they are so big! I thought that would satisfy him but, after thinking about it for a moment, he asked me if I was being silly.

Later at Mom Mom's house (apparently, I don't live there....the little kids think I live in the cry room at Saint Mary's!), he asked, "Why can't I live here?" To which I responded, "Because you ask too many questions." I don't think he liked that answer because he growled and attacked me!! Asking questions in school helps us learn; asking questions at work helps us clarify what's expected of us; asking questions of our government keeps them honest; and when we ask questions of our faith, we grow.

Each week in our scripture readings, we hear Jesus or his disciples ask questions. Jesus asks Paul on the road to Damascus, "Why do you persecute me?" Martha asks Jesus why doesn't he care that she is doing all the work and Mary isn't. Last Sunday, a man asked Jesus what he had to do to gain eternal life. The other night, we were watching a new detective show and one of the stars asked a lot of questions, like "Why did the Flintstones have a Christmas special? Why does Hawaii have an interstate? Why is a nickel larger than a dime?" Makes you wonder, right??

All this got me to thinking what questions we would ask the saints or Jesus if we could right now? We might ask why people suffer from disease or poor health....why are there so many tragedies throughout the world....why are there wars....why do families suffer from addictions to alcohol or drugs. So many questions and so few answers! Perhaps our best consolation is what St. Paul tells us, "If we suffer because we are followers of Christ, we will one day share in the joys of heaven with him because we were faithful to his teachings."

May God Bless You,

Deacon Ray

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH!

Family Support

Our pro-life ideology teaches us to care for the dignity of the human person, as well as each person's call to family and community participation. Thus, today we celebrate the human family in all its beauty and complexity. We pray for the unity of families, as well as the reunification of families across the nation.

In particular, we remember immigrant and refugee families who have been forced by war or other circumstance to leave their homeland and to start over in a new place. We pray for these families, especially those who are members of our community here in Pennsylvania.

CAPUCHIN SISTERS SUPPORT FUND: If you were unable to participate in the collection for support of the Capuchin Sisters and would like to assist with this need, please put your donation in an envelope marked "Capuchin Sisters" and deposit it in the collection at any time.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN: Both of our parishes are in the midst of our 2018 Capital Campaign. In the mailing that was sent to all registered parishioners, Fr. Albert highlighted the capital projects that we hope to complete this calendar year to protect and improve our parish properties. Your support is vital if we hope to achieve these goals.

If you did not receive a letter from Fr. Albert and a contribution card for the campaign, please contact Mary Lou at the Parish Office (570-836-3275) so that we can update our records. Thank you for your continued support of our parishes.

For our visitors and friends who would like to assist us in these projects, there are contribution cards and return envelopes at the entrances to the churches. We thank you for joining us and for your assistance in maintaining our churches.

THE LOWER WYOMING COUNTY FOOD PANTRY: The food pantry is open the first and third Thursday of the month. We are always in need of dessert items (cake mixes, sugar, flour, pudding, bread mixes) as these items are not purchased for the pantry shelves but are certainly enjoyed by our clients.

If you or someone you know is in need, please don't hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your support.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

As Catholics, we are called to be active participants in public life. However, we also face a serious challenge when it comes to voting our conscience. Our Catholic Social Teachings challenge us to promote a consistent ethic of life that is not always supported by the culture of our nation. How do we discern our own role in protecting the sanctity of human life, from conception until natural death? How can we fight to defend the dignity of the unborn, the struggling family, the immigrant, and the elderly? How can we speak about our moral values in an increasingly secular world?

The Office for Parish Life will be hosting information sessions and discussions on Voting with a Catholic Conscience, using the USCCB's 2018 "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." Dates for upcoming events are listed below. We will continue to publish more dates throughout the month.

2019 MASS INTENTIONS: Masses are already filling up fast! Mass intentions for 2019 will be booked on a first-come, first served basis. Please be sure to indicate whether each intention is for a person living or deceased, Catholic or non-Catholic. The offering for an announced Mass is $10.00; names will be printed in the parish bulletin and announced at the Mass.

If you once forfeit the confidence of your fellow citizens, you can never regain their respect and esteem. It is true that you may fool all of the people some of the time; you can even fool some of the people all of the time; but you can't fool all of the people all of the time.

MARRIAGE

The engaged couple is asked to call the Parish Office and arrange an appointment with the priest. Please allow 12 months for the completion of the necessary preparations. Do not enter into any other commitments before confirming a wedding date and time in the parish.
