WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. Guided by the gospel and the examples of parish members, newcomers can find their place in the RCIA community of believers and discover their own relationship with Christ. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

My Brothers and Sisters,

It has been seven years since I retired, and whenever I run into someone I used to work with, the conversation always goes like this, "How's the family? The kids?" I am always amazed to learn that the "kids" I remember are in their twenties and I am left with the same question: Where has the time gone? It seems like just yesterday they were starting pre-school and now they are graduating, getting married and having kids of their own.

We find ourselves with that same question this weekend when we end the Easter season with the feast of Pentecost. I feel like we just celebrated Easter Sunday and yet here we are at the end of one season and the beginning of another. Monday, we are once again in Ordinary Time with some of the everyday stories of Jesus's life.

In our own families, we see the changes that the passing of time brings. My first grandchild, who I remember spending so much time with when he was little ... which wasn't so long ago ... is turning 18 this month and graduating from high school. I remember the day he was born, his first birthday party – and now he is preparing for college. And I know his parents wonder where the time has gone. As young children, we were always in a hurry to grow up, be independent and have freedom. As adults, we wish we could go back. Although, my almost 11-year-old grandson, Alex, told my daughter that he doesn't want to grow up. He wants his childhood to slow down because the adults in the family have made him a believer that kids don't know how good they have it until it's too late and they are grown up.

As we enter the month of June and we see spring slip away into summer, it would be easy to look back and wonder at the passing of time. We are called to change our focus from what was to what will be. This Sunday, we welcome the Holy Spirit and gather as our young adults receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Up at St. Mary's, we are awaiting our return to celebrating Mass in the "New Church." We will soon forget the passing of time during the renovation and instead be caught up in the wonder of a new beginning.

May God bless you,

Deacon Ray

Traditional Home Health and Hospice

Come help the team that helps the community

As the volunteer coordinator at Traditional Home Health and Hospice, I would like to extend an invitation to join our team. Volunteers are an integral part of our community support network.

As a volunteer, you can expect to:

- Provide companionship to patients through conversation, reading, letter writing, music appreciation, movie/TV watching, walking or sitting outside to get some fresh air, and all sort of hobby sharing.
- Help patients and their families by running errands, doing light household chores, doing yard work, or preparing a meal.
- Provide respite to family caregivers, so they may take a break from their caregiving duties for a couple of hours, i.e., doctor appointments, errands, etc.

We offer a comprehensive training program which includes both video and one-on-one training.

Contact Lisa Morgan at (570) 207-9286. She will make arrangements to meet with you and to describe more fully the mission.

HAVE YOU ATTENDED A MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKEND?

Would you like to gather with other WWME alumni in a small group sharing community? Would you like to extend an invitation for others to join a current WWME Share Group?

There is a new WWME Share Group being hosted by John and Joanie Walsh of St. Lucy's Parish, Scranton.

If your spouse and you have ever attended a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend, gathering with a WWME Share Group can be a great way to extend the benefits of the Weekend for your marriage. If you would like to attend this gathering in the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre area, please contact John or Joanie at joaniewalsh528@hotmail.com or (719) 339-9970.

If you are already involved with a WWME Share Group in the Diocese of Scranton, and would like your group to be listed on our Marriage Support webpage so that others might join you, please contact Jennifer Housel, Director of Community and Family Development, (570) 207-2213 x 1104, jhousel@dioceseofscranton.org.

ANNULMENT PROCESS: Do you want to know more about the annulment process? In the Diocese of Scranton, the annulment process is now more "user friendly" than you might expect, and there is no longer a processing fee. Please contact Fr. Pat or the Diocesan Tribunal Office (570-207-2246) to begin a conversation. It is possible to get clear answers to these questions and to renew your connection with the Church.
