MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. FROM THE PASTOR'S TYPEWRITER:

Nativity BVM church was the setting this past Sunday for the Confirmation of 22 young people fully prepared for and energetic to begin professing and living out this new expression of their faith. It is our responsibility as Christian people to continue to demonstrate – by word and example – the very positive aspects of the beautiful sacrament they have received,

They will look to us for that example as they have for their skills in kindness, mercy, compassion, forgiveness, generosity and many other attributes of our faith that will assist them in shaping a better world. And so their parents and family have brought them to this moment and now it is up to us to be the example they will need as they build a strong faith life to the next generation.

Well done to our young people – congratulations; and to our parish, may your best example be a gift as well as a lasting legacy to all who walk the journey of faith.

Fr. Pat

CAPUCHIN SISTERS SUPPORT FUND: If you would like to assist with this need, please put your donation in an envelope marked "Capuchin Sisters" and deposit it in the collection at any time.

SML REDECORATION PROJECT: Daily Mass is being celebrated in the Hospitality Room and weekend Masses are being celebrated in the Parish Hall.

We're getting there! Work is progressing on our renovation of St. Mary of the Lake church. Painting is done, carpeting is in, new lighting is installed....we're getting close! We ask for your continued patience and support during the renovation process. When you see the results, we're sure that you will be pleased.

Only a few items remain on the Memorialization list – see the enclosed flyer for the available items. Memorialization is available on a first come-first served basis.

The Social Concerns Ministry of St. Mary of the Lake will take its place on the front lawn of our rectory on June 22nd, Founders Day in Tunkhannock. We have quite a following for our delectable treats at the "Buck a Bag" cookie booth chocolate chip, peanut butter and welsh cookies, and snickerdoodles are always a hit as are the sugar cookies!

The "Buck a Bag" cookie sale is the only fundraiser for the "Sonshine" Ministry to share the love of God through the comfort of a visit to those returning home from the hospital, in a nursing home, or offering prayers and sympathy.....in the way of a small gift, maybe a meal or baked good, and a candle to be reminded that Christ is our Light.

Please think about making your favorite cookie recipe to help us....if you are attending Founders Day, perhaps you would consider sitting at our booth for an hour to give others a break to walk around or have something to eat.

The cookies can be dropped off at the home of Marie Packer (570-378-2420), placed in the church kitchen, or call Mary Lou Franko (570-586-4811) for pick up.....the cookies can be placed in baggies for sale but not necessary.....we will do it!

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The greatest dogma of the Christian faith is the mystery of the Holy Trinity. (Mystery, in this connection, means a supernatural fact revealed by God which in itself transcends the natural power of human reasoning.) During the first thousand years of Christianity there was no special feast celebrated in honor of this mystery, but, as Pope Alexander II (1073) declared, every day of the liturgical year was devoted to the honor and adoration of the Sacred Trinity.

However, to counteract the Arian heresy, which denied the fullness of divinity to the Son, a special Mass text in honor of the Holy Trinity was introduced and incorporated in the Roman liturgical books. This Mass was not assigned for a definite day but could be used on certain Sundays according to the private devotion of each priest. (Such Mass texts which are not prescribed but open to choice on certain days are now known as "votive Masses.") From the ninth century on, various bishops of the Frankish kingdoms promoted in their own dioceses a special feast of the Holy Trinity, usually on the Sunday after Pentecost. They used a Mass text that Abbot Alcuin (804) is said to have composed.

Thus the custom of observing a special feast in honor of the Trinity became increasingly popular in the northern countries of Europe. Several synods prescribed it for their respective territories in France, Germany, England, and The Netherlands. In the thirteenth century the orders of the Benedictines and Cistercians adopted the annual celebration of the feast. It was kept on different Sundays in different places, until in 1334 Pope John XXII accepted the festival into the official calendar of the Western Church and ordered that henceforth it should be held everywhere on the Sunday after Pentecost.

A new Mass text was written and published. It is interesting to note that the beautiful Preface of the Trinity as read today is the same one that appeared in the first text of the Sacramentary of Saint Gregory the Great. Most of the other prayers are of later origin. The Divine Office in its present form was arranged under Pope Saint Pius V (1572). It is one of the most sublime offices of the breviary.

The Feast of the Holy Trinity now belongs among the great annual festivals of Christianity. Although it is not observed with additional liturgical services outside the Mass, its celebration quickly took root in the hearts and minds of the faithful, and in all countries of Europe popular traditions are closely associated with this feast.

The making of the sign of the cross, which professes faith both in the redemption of Christ and in the Trinity, was practiced from the earliest centuries. Saint Augustine (431) mentioned and described it many times in his sermons and letters. In those days Christians made the sign of the cross (Redemption) with three fingers (Trinity) on their foreheads. The words ("In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost") were added later. Almost two hundred years before Augustine, in the third century, Tertullian had already reported this touching and beautiful early Christian practice:

In all our undertakings — when we enter a place or leave it; before we dress; before we bathe; when we take our meals; when we light the lamps in the evening; before we retire at night; when we sit down to read; before each new task — we trace the sign of the cross on our foreheads.

During the first centuries of the Christian era the Holy Trinity was sometimes represented in paintings by three young men of identical shape and looks. By the sixth century, however, it had become an accepted practice that only the Father and Son should be shown in human form; the Holy Spirit is represented by the figure of a dove.

In medieval times there were many imaginative and symbolic pictures, as well as designs, to indicate the great mystery of the faith. The Church has not officially accepted any of them, has tolerated some, forbidden others. One of the best-known symbols of this kind is the trefoil (shamrock). A second plant to which this symbolism is attached is the pansy (viola tricolor), which even today is called "Trinity flower" in many parts of Europe. In Puerto Rico a delicately perfumed white flower with three petals is called Trinitaria. Another symbol is the figure of a triangle (Trinity) surrounded by rays (divinity) with the picture of an eye inside the triangle (omniscience and providence). This design became very popular and may be found all over Europe in homes, on wayside shrines, and even in churches. An interesting version of this symbol may be seen in the Great Seal of the United States (reproduced on every one-dollar bill).

Whatever the weather on Trinity Sunday, it is said to be good and wholesome. "Trinity rain" is credited with special powers of health and fertility. Ghosts and witches are prevented from doing harm. Magic flowers blossom at midnight bestowing on their finders all kinds of miraculous benefits like the healing of diseases, discovery of hidden treasures, protection against accidents, and freedom from pain for the rest of the year.

On the other hand, in popular fantasy the neglect or desecration of this great Sunday is punished with dire misfortune. Those who refuse to attend service or who do menial work will suffer sickness, accidents, or even death within the year. Any work with metal instruments (including sewing needles) will bring the additional punishment of drawing lightning upon the house for the rest of the season. This superstition derives (as does that of Ascension Day) from the ancient lore of the death demons roaming the earth at this season of the year.

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole who healed those who believed. Amen.
