WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. Guided by the gospel and the examples of parish members, newcomers can find their place in the RCIA community of believers and discover their own relationship with Christ. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

FROM ST. MARY'S PARISH COMMUNITY:

Hello Everyone.....

It is hard to believe that we are entering the last days of July. It seems that once the fourth of July passes, the summer just flies. In just a few weeks, I will be back teaching at Holy Cross High School starting yet another school year. I already noticed a few stores have the pumpkins on the shelf and the back-to-school ads are already popping up. Before you know it, Santa will be at the mall (Christmas is less than six months away). I have to say, I also noticed that the older you get, the quicker the time seems to go.

I had the privilege of lecturing at St. Mary's parish two weeks ago and serving as Eucharist Minister one week ago. It was great to be back in the church, and the church looks GREAT!!! What a difference!! Let me express my thanks to all of those involved with any aspect of the redecorating of the church. Everyone has done a great job!!!

I am sure there are some out there who are not happy with the outcome. However, one thing to keep in mind; one does not go to church because of a building, but rather it is the people who are the church. I continually remind my students that it is not the building that makes a school, but rather the student body that defines a school.

I invite anyone who may be interested in being a lector, greeter, or usher at St. Mary's parish to contact me at randrews@hchspa.org or at 570-575-9726. Our parish family would be thrilled to have you join our ministries.

May God bless you,

Bob Andrews
St. Mary of the Lake

We will notify you of that schedule if you are registered.

I want to be able to display and have a pre-sale in the hall once again.

I apologize for the rush this year caused by my son's wedding, which is quickly approaching. I want to do a good job on this important fundraiser and also enjoy this beautiful time in my life.

Traditional Home Health and Hospice

Come help the team that helps the community

As the volunteer coordinator at Traditional Home Health and Hospice, I would like to extend an invitation to join our team. Volunteers are an integral part of our community support network.

As a volunteer, you can expect to:

- Provide companionship to patients through conversation, reading, letter writing, music appreciation, movie/TV watching, walking or sitting outside to get some fresh air, and all sort of hobby sharing.
- Help patients and their families by running errands, doing light household chores, doing yard work, or preparing a meal.
- Provide respite to family caregivers, so they may take a break from their caregiving duties for a couple of hours, i.e., doctor appointments, errands, etc.

We offer a comprehensive training program which includes both video and one-on-one training.

Contact Lisa Morgan at (570) 207-9286. She will make arrangements to meet with you and to describe more fully the mission.

"7 Effective Ways to Make Others Feel Important

1. Use their name.
2. Express sincere gratitude.
3. Do more listening than talking.
4. Talk more about them than about you.
5. Be authentically interested.
6. Be sincere in your praise.
7. Show you care."

Certificate in Ministry Studies

The Office for Parish Life is partnering with Center for Ministry Development to provide specialized tracks in ministry formation. The Certificate in Ministry Studies® is a ministry education program for adults in ministry with youth, families and adults, in both parish and school settings. The program includes four online courses and eight in-person courses. These in-person courses are offered in our Diocese over a two year period, at minimal cost to the participants because of funds provided through the Diocesan Annual Appeal. The Certificate program leads to a Certificate in Youth Ministry Studies OR Certificate in Lifelong Faith Formation. Parishes benefit especially by enrolling coordinators of both ministry areas in the program together. Program Schedule for 2019-2020 is as follows:

- September 4, 2019—Online Orientation Meeting with all applicants (offered in the afternoon and evening)
- September 28, 2019 —In-person course #1 - Diocesan Pastoral Center o Principles of Youth Ministry OR o Principles and Vision for Lifelong Catechesis
- October 13- November 9, 2019 —First online course: Visioning for Catholic Youth Ministry/Catholic Faith Formation
- February 2020—Second online course: Leading Ministry
- March 14, 2020—In-person course #2—Practice of Ministry (location TBD by participants)
- June 24 & 25, 2020—In-person courses #3 Foundations for Ministry Leadership and #4 Skills for Christian Leadership Persons interested in more information and/or to enroll in the Certificate in Ministry Studies should contact: Kitty Scanlan at kittyscanlan@dioceseofscranton.org or 570-207-2213.
