WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. Guided by the gospel and the examples of parish members, newcomers can find their place in the RCIA community of believers and discover their own relationship with Christ. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

BULLETIN: If you have information that you would like to place in the bulletin (community news, society/social news, etc.), please have it at the parish office no later than Tuesday morning.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Visits are made on a regular basis.
PLEASE NOTE: The new privacy laws limit the amount of information that we receive from the hospitals or nursing/convalescent homes. It is necessary that family or friends notify us of these admittances.

HANDICAPPED SEATING AREA: Please note that the front pew nearest to the side door is reserved to accommodate those who have need due to disability. Please be kind enough to leave this pew available for that purpose.

PARKING LOT: [St. Mary's] Please keep the emergency lane in front of the church clear at all times. It is essential that vehicles are able to get in and out of the parking lot in case of an emergency. Please adhere to the parking spaces as delineated. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners when you are backing up or turning to park or to exit the parking lot. There is ample parking on the upper level and supplemental parking on the side of the church.

FROM THE NATIVITY PARISH COMMUNITY:

Jesus sang

After identifying the bread as his body and the wine as his blood, the Gospel reads: "And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives". MARK 14:26; MATTHEW 26:30.

The Kyrie, Sanctus or Agnus Dei remain largely constant and important music that has special relevance to the prayers of the day. They are the words the Church wants us to hear sung today. Music intended for the liturgy should remain focused on its purpose and role. It should never be jarring or distract from the meaning of the divine text or from the purpose of worship for which music is made.

What happens at the Mass when God becomes present at the altar is not something that happens in any part of the rest of your life. The truth of what's happening at Mass is so different than anything else that the music needs to reflect that somehow. In Vatican II it says that sacred music is the most valuable treasure of all the artistic treasures the Church has, if we can be a small part of that, then what better use of our skills could there be?

How does this translate for the average parish? The singing of the Church comes ultimately out of love. It is the utter depth of love that produces the singing. The Holy Spirit is love, and it is he who produces the singing. He is the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit who draws us into love for Christ and so leads to the Father. The Second Vatican Council mandated that the choir be an integral part of the liturgy team: "Choirs must be diligently promoted." The choir is responsible for the correct performance of the parts that belong to it and for helping the faithful to take an active part in the singing. Like many things in the wake of the Council, the choirs, instead of multiplying, have virtually disappeared. In many parishes today, choirs sing only for special events; however the choir should lead the congregation at Mass, every Sunday. In the Church, in absence of choirs, cantors have taken over as soloists. In that case, the music is treated as a solo, and the average person does not participate.

The Mass is a celebration in the real sense of the word. Music and singing are of the utmost importance in every liturgical celebration. Music and singing give the RITES solemnity, dignity and beauty. And they give joy and spiritual uplifting to all who are celebrating – priests, ministers, congregation. The Choir is at the service of the congregation, the people of God. Its purpose and task (not a free for all, but something precious, an obligation of faith and personal responsibility) is to lead and to help, to animate and support, and encourage the full participation of the congregation.

A special ministry is assigned to the Choir by the Church. Choir members are specially close to the "sacred mysteries". Surely more of our church members should desire to participate and benefit FULLY from that special closeness.

May we, by singing, meet and encounter and "touch" the Lord,

Ruth Tewksbury, Choir Member

LOCAL CATHOLIC RADIO STATION
JMJ RADIO 750AM or 98.9FM

DIOCESE ADDS TWO NAMES TO LIST OF CREDIBLY ACCUSED INDIVIDUALS: Following the release of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report in 2018, Bishop Joseph C. Bambera pledged to be open and transparent in the way that the Diocese of Scranton handles occurrences of child sexual abuse.

As a result, the Diocese announces two names have been added to its list of clergy that have a credible claim of sexual abuse against a minor.

In August 2018, the Diocese published on its website a list of all clergy, staff and volunteers who had been credibly accused of child sexual abuse. Eleven additional names were added to the online list in January 2019. Since then, additional survivors have come forward. After a review was completed in consultation with the Diocesan Independent Review Board, the two new names are listed below. We will continue to alert you periodically in the case that additional individuals are added to list.

The Diocese of Scranton urges individuals who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese to report abuse directly to law enforcement. If you are aware of additional allegations of wrongdoing or any information that should be included on this list, please contact our Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at (570) 862-7551. If you have suffered abuse by clergy or anyone working on behalf of the Diocese, you are encouraged to contact Mary Beth Pacuska.

These names have been added to the original list of credibly accused individuals:

Respect Life

In the early years following the Roe v. Wade ruling, those who stand for life personally delivered roses to legislators in their Capitol Hill offices on the morning of January 22. Since then the rose has become the symbol of the modern pro-life movement.

A red rose symbolizes the mourning that America experiences in the loss of 55 million+ unborn lives.

The rose symbolizes marriage and motherhood, a representation dating back to sixteenth-century Tudor England, with the red rose specifically symbolizing childbirth.

A red rose universally represents love. The gift of a rose is a loving way to encourage members of Congress to support policies that protect children and build a culture of life.

The Rose

Amanda McBroom

Some say love, it is a river
 that drowns the tender reed
 Some say love, it is a razor
 that leaves your soul to bleed
 Some say love, it is a hunger
 an endless aching need
 I say love, it is a flower
 and you, it's only seed

It's the heart, afraid of breaking that never learns to dance
 It's the dream, afraid of waking that never takes the chance
 It's the one who won't be taken who cannot seem to give
 And the soul, afraid of dying
 that never learns to live

When the night has been too lonely and the road has been too long
 And you think that love is only for the lucky and the strong Just remember in the winter far beneath the bitter snow Lies the seed that with the sun's love, in the spring becomes the rose

THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT IS RESERVED WHERE MASS IS SAID
We respectfully ask that all observe a reverent silence and appropriate dress
