SUNDAY, JUNE 16 - THE MOST HOLY TRINITY - BAPTISM, TRINITY, AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations. Baptize them in the name 'of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.' " —Matthew 28:19

The greatest moment of our lives was when we were baptized. At Baptism, we received a new nature (see Jn 3:3, 5) and were adopted as sons and daughters of God (Rm 8:15). We were baptized into Christ's death and resurrection (Rm 6:3ff), redeemed, sanctified, and consecrated (see 1 Cor 6:11). This greatest of all graces in our lives occurred when the priest or deacon was saying the words: "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." We should never forget the words at the moment of our Baptisms. Therefore, when we wake up, the first words of our day should be the first words of our new life in Christ, that is, "In the name of the Father..." When we begin to pray the Mass, the rosary, meal prayers, or any prayer, we begin and end "in the name of the Father..." When we end our days and our lives, it should be "in the name of the Father..." We are baptized in, immersed in, preoccupied with, and in love with the Holy Trinity. To enter more deeply into Trinitarian love, we need the Holy Spirit of Pentecost to reveal to us "what lies at the depths of God" (1 Cor 2:11). That's why the Church always celebrates Pentecost the Sunday before Trinity Sunday. Through the Spirit, our lives will be always and deeply "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Come, Holy Spirit! Renew our Baptisms. Lead us into the Trinity.

Announcements:

*June 21 - St. Aloysius Gonzaga, left his powerful family to become a Jesuit priest and died as a young man caring for plague victims. Aloysius Gonzaga was the firstborn in a powerful Italian noble family, one that was deeply involved in the ongoing business of dealing and double-dealing, treachery and betrayal that marked the political life of the time. Aloysius was thrust into adult responsibilities at the age of four when he began his training as a soldier and courtier. At the age of eight he served in the court of Grand Duke Francesco I de' Medici. Aloysius Gonzaga began to suffer from kidney disease, and in the process of recovery spent time in spiritual reading and prayer. At the age of nine Gonzaga made a private vow of chastity. The political intrigue and corruption surrounding Aloysius would take the lives of two of his brothers, but he had strong spiritual allies. Aloysius Gonzaga received his first Holy Communion from St. Charles Borromeo. Aloysius also began to teach catechism to young boys. Much to the displeasure and anger of his father, Aloysius announced his intention to become a Jesuit. His family tried to convince him to be a secular priest so that they could "buy" him a bishopric. Aloysius was adamant, and at the age of 18 he signed away his legal claim to his family lands and title. In 1585 Aloysius was accepted as a Jesuit novice. In Rome his spiritual director was St. Robert Bellarmine, who counseled Gonzaga to spend less time in private devotions and more time befriending and counseling his companions. Never in good health, Aloysius successfully continued his studies. When the plague hit Rome in 1591 he actively cared for the sick. Aloysius developed the symptoms of the plague and died soon after on June 21, 1591. Aloysius Gonzaga was canonized in 1726 and named Patron of All Students in 1729.

*Thought of the week: No one in this world is pure and perfect. If you avoid people for their mistakes, you will be alone in this world. So judge less and love more.
