

HOMECOMING AT NATIVITY

Nativity Grade School was bustling with homecoming activities Sept. 22-24.

The celebration featured a pep rally, a dance, a food drive and three football games, each of which was followed by a picnic for the players and their families.

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

Sam Smith, a member of Nativity's third- and fourth-grade football team, runs between two rows of cheerleaders during the pep rally.

Nativity's third- and fourth-grade football team played St. Barnabas in one of the three homecoming games.

Callie Elrod (from left), Samantha Durm, Maggie Smith, Maria Paynter and Jadea Crockett cheered the fifth- and sixth-grade football team to a 14-12 victory.