Giving of our time involves being with God in prayer and worship and volunteering our time in the Church and community activities that help others.

Sharing our talents arises from the fact that God has given each of us the ability and gifts to do certain things well, and we are to develop those talents for the good of others

Consider this fact in your venture thru life.

Empowering Young Families, Inc. is a new non-profit whose mission is to show the love and mercy of Jesus Christ to young moms, dads and children. Currently, we are offering Teen Mother Choices program which assists teen mothers (ages 13-23) to complete high school, attend college or work full time by helping with childcare costs. We meet weekly for Life Skill Workshops to "add tools to their toolbox" to become functional, independent families. Each teen mom has a Christian Mentor who encourages the mom in many ways as teen, mom, student, and worker. If you know anyone in your area that would benefit from this program or if you would like to volunteer, please call Lyn at 513-476-2863 or email lyn@teenmotherchoices.org

Through the generosity of those who contribute to the Catholic Campaign Human Development collection, the Archdiocese of Indianapolis has been able to assist many worthwhile endeavors that are working to provide people with hope and in many cases a second chance at life. Some of the initiatives include: (A) The Bedford Men's Warming Center where homeless men in Bedford, IN can receive a hot meal, shelter from the cold and services to help them get their life back on track; (B) Dathouse Inc. – Kids where students of an inner-city Indianapolis public school are offered a faith-based afterschool program that provides a safe place for children to learn healthy social, emotional and life skills; and (C) Teen Mother Choices in the Batesville Deanery where teen mothers are taught life skills and are provided with a mentor to walk with them as they learn the skills to be a good mother to their child. This is just a sample of the many worthwhile initiatives that are making a difference for so many people who find themselves on the margins of society.

St. Charles Christmas Party will be held on Saturday Dec 14th, 2019 after the 5:00pm Mass in Parish Hall. The Parish will supply the meat and drinks. Please bring a covered dish or a desert to share.
