Look at the Crucifix

If you want to know how you were saved from the jaws of hell, look at the Crucifix.

If you want to know how much God wants to save your immortal soul, look at the Crucifix.

If you want to know Who will lead you to Heaven, look at the Crucifix.

If you want to live well, look at the Crucifix.

All the Mass Intentions that were scheduled starting on Friday 03-20-2020 until St. Charles Church reopens will be sent to St. Louis Parish were Fr. Pondo and Fr. Santhosh will have the St. Charles Mass intentions said by one of them in their daily private Mass.

Parishioners of St Charles can take this time of recommended isolation and pause of normal and often-very-busy routines to strengthen our personal faith and reinforce bonds with families, neighbors and the church at large.

Tap into the spiritual resources such as livestreamed Masses, Bible readings and prayers; reach out to others; stay connected through social media, emails or video conference calls.

Within your interior strive to bring Gods immediate intimacy to your mind, soul and being.

Daily throughout our international world catholic priest are offering up the Eucharist and our prayer intention. Monasteries are praying for gods Church. His presence power and care is alive and full affecting us. During this time of our slowing down bring reflection of god, hop and love to your mind and resist the darkness, despair and desolation from the evil one. Keep god close you in your every moment!

There will be No Parish activities until further notice per Archbishop Thompson.
