Give your purse a new purpose

New and very gently used purses, handbags, travel or exercise bags are requested for the annual Safe Passage Handbags 4 Hope. Organizers plan to present the popular purse auction, but just how (virtual or live) and when has yet to be determined. It's most likely to be August or September. Stay tuned for details! In the meantime, purses may be donated at the shelter in downtown Batesville. Designer handbags and new purses have raised thousands of dollars and priceless awareness for the nonprofit in the past through this special event. Safe Passage, the sole provider of domestic and sexual violence support services in the six county area, has remained open and serving victims during this pandemic. For more information: 812-933-1990.
