The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee Schools to Temporarily Close Due to Coronavirus

PENSACOLA, FL (March 13, 2020) – The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee announces school closures for all Catholic schools in the diocese in response to the growing COVID-19 outbreak starting March 16 through March 29, 2020.

The decision was based on the recommendation of the Florida Department of Education. Closures also include the postponement of all scheduled school, athletic activities, as well as Catholic Youth Sports League events until further notice.

Diocesan schools will all observe spring break March 16 through March 20.

The diocese continues to monitor the situation and may alter these directives as needed based on the Florida Department of Education and Centers for Disease Control.

Classes are expected to resume on March 30.
