New grants offered for students to attend Catholic schools this fall

PENSACOLA, FL (July 16, 2020) – Two new grants are being offered to qualified students who are seeking a Catholic school education in the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee for the 2020-2021 school year.

The Mustard Seed Grant will provide a one-time $2000 tuition assistance grant for 25 Catholic students in grades K-12 whose family is entering one of the diocesan schools for the first time. Multiple siblings may qualify in the same year. The Mustard Seed Grant is an initiative, which is the outcome of a partnership between the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee and the Catholic Foundation of Northwest Florida.

The Diocesan Family Grant, provided by the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee, is a one-time $900 tuition assistance grant for families with at least one child in one of the diocesan Catholic elementary schools and at least one child in one of the diocesan Catholic high schools.

“The grants will provide an opportunity for children to experience a Catholic education. Now more than ever, having a faith-based formation and providing academic excellence can have a positive influence on our society,” said Mike Juhas, superintendent of Catholic schools.

For more information or to apply, contact the Diocesan Office for Catholic Schools at (850) 435-3540. Additional grants are available.
