

Online Safety for Educators and Parents

Category	Link	Notes
Connect Safely	http://www.connectsafely.org
Cyberbullying Information	http://www.cbyerbully.org
Cyber Smart Curriculum for K-12 Educators	http://www.cybersmart.org
NetSmartz Workshop for Educators K-5	http://www.netsmartz.org/educators.htm
NetSmartz Into the Cloud	https://www.missingkids.org/netsmartz/intothecloud#programresources
Shared Hope	https://sharedhope.org/what-we-do/prevent/awareness/internetsafety/	Shared Hope
Types of Cyber Crime	http://www.playitcybersafe.com
US Department of Educational Technology Internet Safety Information	http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/os/technology/safety.html

Online Safety for K-12 (Teens and Children) and Parents

Category	Link	Notes
Bullying	https://www.stopbullying.gov/videos-social-media	Middle School and High School
Connect Safely	http://www.connectsafely.org
Don't Believe the Type	http://www.cybertipline.com	Missing Kids.org
Net Family News	http://www.netfamilynews.org
NetSmartz	http://www.netsmartz.org
Safe Kids	http://www.safekids.com
Suspected Criminal Activity Tip Line	http://www.cybertipline.org/	(800)843-5678
Shared Hope	https://sharedhope.org/what-we-do/prevent/awareness/internetsafety/
Suspicious Internet Communications		Ask your Internet Service Provider to check them out, and report. Report them to webmaster@yourISP.com , substituting the name of your ISP for the ISP (e.g. webmaster@aol.com)
Web Wise Kids	http://www.wiredsafety.org
Wired Safety	http://www.wiredsafety.org	Under safety tab
Wired Tweens & Kids	http://www.wiredsafety.org	Under safety tab

Stay Safe Online <https://staysafeonline.org/stay-safe-online/identity-theft-fraud-cybercrime/reporting-cybercrime/>

Resources Library gives information on who to contact such as local law enforcement. Establish contact with local law enforcement agencies. Most have a Crime Prevention and/or Cybersecurity Units – willing to talk with teachers, parents and children about how to stay safe online, including what to be aware of on social media apps.