Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St. Catharine, are dedicated to spreading the Good News by word and example. Nourished by the Eucharist, we seek to advance God's Kingdom by enriching spiritual life, increasing parishioner involvement, deepening commitment to social justice, fostering communication, and building community.

Our Holy Families

This weekend, between Christmas and New Year, we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We probably view them in all kinds of ways that are very different from our own families. After all, Jesus is the Son of God, like us in all ways but sin. Mary is born without original sin, as we recently celebrated Immaculate Conception, and Joseph is always portrayed as a pious man. How does that resemble our families?

If truth be told there is a big difference as we live with people like ourselves who cannot claim to be sinless. But in another way, all our families are indeed holy. It is the place where we do most of our living. Since that is true, it is the place and the people where we do most of our sinning, since we live with each other 24/7, 365 days a year. Yet, it is also the place we do the most loving, hopefully an unconditional love that endures.

Within our families we are taught patience, tolerance and ultimately forgiveness. Be sure of this, it is where we experience God the most. So, as we celebrate a season of joy, may we look into the eyes of our fellow family members and thank God for them. The thought of calling our families holy, may at first make us feel uncomfortable when comparing them to Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Yet remember, the definition of holiness is the presence of God, and make no mistake about it, God is present in the midst of our imperfections. So, let us celebrate and thank God for those with whom we experience the depth of God's love.

I also want to take this time to wish you a very Happy New Year and to thank so many of you for your generous response to our financial plea. With conversions to Faith Direct and some one-time gifts, it is hard to report exactly where we stand going forward, however the trends are good and we will give a monthly comparison once we get through January. In the meantime, please keep it up, and if you have not switched to Faith Direct, or increased your weekly offering, that can happen whenever it is good for you.

May 2020 be a time of blessing for all our holy families, as well as the Holy Family in which we are all a part of, here at St Catharine's.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Today's Readings

First Reading Those who honor and comfort their parents shall never be forgotten (Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14).

Psalms Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways (Psalm 128).

Second Reading You are called into one body. Bear with one another; forgive one another; let Christ's peace control you (Colossians 3:12-21 [12-17]).

Gospel Joseph rose, took the child and his mother, and fled to Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life.

The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share—within our families, parish families, and the wider human family—the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time.

*"Wives, be subordinate to your husbands...Husbands, love your wives...
Children, obey your parents in everything...
Fathers, do not provoke your children..." Colossians 3:18-21*

Pope Francis said that families, through their life of prayer and love, become "schools of true human growth." Being credible witnesses of Christian love, especially that of family members, exerts the most positive influence on our children. We are all children of God, let us pray and love each other as God, Our Father, does for us.

New Year's Prayer

Thank you Lord for giving me the brand new year ahead.
Help me live the way I should as each new day I tread.
Give me gentle wisdom, that I might help a friend,
Give me strength and courage, so a shoulder I might lend.
The year ahead is empty, help me fill it with good things,
Each new day filled with joy, and the happiness it brings.
Please give the leaders of our world a courage born of peace,
That they might lead us gently and all the fighting cease.
Please give to all upon this earth a heart that's filled with love,
A gentle happy way to live with Your blessings from above.
