Easter Sunday - April 4, 2021

Today's Readings

Reading I: Acts 10: 34a, 37-43 Peter's sermon contains the heart of the Apostolic preaching message, with the added promise of forgiveness of sin for all believers.

Reading II: Colossians 3: 1-4 The promises of the Messianic age are fulfilled in Jesus Christ. At the end of time, Christ and all the believers in Him will appear in glory.

The Gospel: John 20: 1-9 In John's gospel, written the last of the four, the full meaning of Easter is the completion of Jesus' return to His Father. Only then will the disciples "remember" and understand the meaning of these events. Meanwhile, "the Beloved Disciple" immediately believes in the resurrection, as opposed to the doubt of Thomas.

Readings for the Week

Monday: Acts 2:14, 22-33; Ps 16:1-2a, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11; Mt 28:8-15
 Tuesday: Acts 2:36-41; Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22; Jn 20:11-18
 Wednesday: Acts 3:1-10; Ps 105:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8-9; Lk 24:13-35
 Thursday: Acts 3:11-26; Ps 8:2ab, 5, 6-7, 8-9; Lk 24:35-48
 Friday: Acts 4:1-12; Ps 118:1-2, 4, 22-24, 25-27a; Jn 21:1-14
 Saturday: Acts 4:13-21; Ps 118:1, 14-15ab, 16-18, 19-21; Mk 16:9-15
 Sunday: Acts 4:32-35; Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24; 1 Jn 5:1-6; Jn 20:19-31

*Happy Easter -

*May the blessed promise of Christ...
 Bring joy to your days...
 Peace to your heart...
 And hope to your spirit!*

Please Note:

There will only be one mass this Monday at 9 AM.

Rectory Office Hours Next Week:

Never More than Now

Every year we have the greatest reminder that "Hope Springs Eternal".

Of course I am talking about Easter Sunday. It happens in the spring when there are all kinds of signs that point to new life and new beginnings. The grass is growing trees and plants are budding and everything shouts out what can be. This year more than any year I have been alive we need to share that and celebrate.

When I was lead a youth group 40 years ago we used to sing a song entitled, "Do Not Fear to Hope". I cannot think of a more appropriate sentiment for the world today. COVID has had many devastating effects on us as people, including the enormous numbers of people who lost their lives.

Maybe a close second when it comes to effects us the fear and anxiety that fill so many people either directly because of people we know or the enormity of the pandemic in the world. In many cases the hears have crippled us to the point that we are afraid to hope.

Easter is more than symbolic, it is real. The tomb is empty, Jesus is alive. We cannot become careless or believe that COVID is no more but we also need to live. If we do not step forward we will become prisoners of our own fears.

Let's celebrate life, celebrate family and friends, celebrate ourselves and our connection to one another and t our God. Do not fear to hope because in the end hope allows to open our eyes each day as to what can be. Easter is the triumph of life over death and that not only Jesus but we are all people of resurrection.

On behalf of our entire staff I wish to you and all those you love a most blessed and Happy Easter. As we return, slowly but surely, to life, I look forward to seeing more of you to live worship so we can celebrate our faith together. I love you and thank you for helping me to hope. Let's do that for another.

Fr. Tom

St. Catharine Shawl Ministry is still in operation during the pandemic, although without meetings and gatherings. So what does that mean exactly? There is a limited supply of prayer shawls and lapghans available for anyone in need of prayers and a blessing.

The challenge is knowing who has a need since we usually depend on word of mouth and that is severely curtailed under the current conditions. The second obstacle is in restoring our supply.

Both can be overcome: If you would like a shawl/lapghan reach out to stcatharineshawlministry@gmail.com and we will contact you. Shawls and lapghans can be made at home and donated so if you knit or crochet and would like to contribute, please do! Acrylic yarn is used, no wool please. Once again go to the above email if you need information or directions.

The Shawl Ministry is always in need of new members so please consider sharing your time and talents with us!

Opposing The Equality Act

If you have not expressed opposition to the so-called "Equality Act", please consider doing so. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity. The Equality Act in many ways does the opposite and needs to be opposed. Instead of respecting differences and beliefs about marriage and sexuality, the Equality Act would discriminate against people of faith. It would punish faith-based organizations such as charities and schools who serve everyone in their communities simply because of their beliefs; it would force girls and women to compete against boys and men for limited opportunities in sports, and to share locker rooms and shower spaces with biological males who identify as women; it could mandate taxpayers to fund abortions; force people in everyday life, and especially healthcare workers to support gender transition; and expand what the government considers a "public" place, forcing even some parish halls to host functions that conflict with Catholic beliefs. Please give serious thought to contacting our congress people!

Save the Date - Celebrate Fr. Jim Heuser

April 9 – 11 On-Site Weekend Retreat
The Gift of Desperation

As we look back on 2020, can we find something to be thankful for? Can the Gift of Desperation move our hearts to Gratitude? Do we believe that every aspect of our lives and world events, even a pandemic, is "somehow" a blessing from God, a reason for gratitude? What does gratitude look like in our time and place for the struggling disciple who truly desires to deepen his or her faith life/spirituality? Led by Fr. Tom Marciniak and Karen Florance.

Join us for a weekend retreat in-person or virtually, as we ponder The Gift of Desperation which can lead us to the Grace of Radical Gratitude.

Retreat Directors Paul Brian Campbell, S.J. and Linda Baratte
"Poetry is a life-cherishing force. For poems are not words, after all, but fires for the cold, ropes let down to the lost, something as necessary as bread in the pockets of the hungry." ~ Mary Oliver, A Poetry Handbook

A good poem is a work of art. Yet certain poems are more than art. Because of what they say or how they say it, these poems have the potential to lift our souls to God with the power of their transcendent images and capacity to put words to our own spiritual journeys. They become prayer for us. Come for a morning as we explore through the lens of faith the praise, adoration, and awe embedded in the works of six poets. Praying with these poets and their work can be our own love letter to God.
