A non-traditional approach to addressing adolescent mental health issues in today's world

September 30, 2018
7:00 p.m.

St. Catharine's Gymnasium
905 Maple Ave., Glen Rock, NJ

Open to the public for 7th grade students through 12th grade as well as adults

Girl Scout Gold Award project in conjunction with St. Catharine's CYO program

The purpose of this performance is to facilitate a discussion on sensitive, but relevant, topics in a non-traditional manner through a series of short scenes. Topics include, but are not limited to, drug and alcohol abuse, depression, self-image, suicide, school, and friends.
