Dear Parishioners

I was given a plaque by a gentleman who had been away from the Church for a very long time. He felt he couldn't attend Mass or participate in the Church because he had not practiced his faith or attended Mass for many years.

In conversation, the reason he left the Church was due to all the sins he has committed and some major ones he felt he could never be forgiven.

I was brought to him by a friend of his and we talked and his friend asked if I would bring up the subject of confession. To make a long story short, I did bring it up and for the next hour this "fallen away" Catholic confessed his sins and asked questions and sought advice. At the end of his confession he felt so relieved and had such a renewed sense of faith and life that his friend, who had brought me to him, noticed it right away.

Before I left, the man who confessed took off the shelf a wooden plaque that sat central in his rec room. It was positioned in an area where one could easily be drawn to see it. I noticed it right away when I came into his house. Well, the recently reconciled man took that plaque and he said, "Before you go, I want you to have this." The plaque read: "Every Saint Has A Past – Every Sinner Has A Future." The plaque sits on my desk and I see that saying each time I sit at my desk.

The man who gave that plaque, which was a center piece in his rec room, now has no need to be reminded that we are all sinners, for we call to mind our sins each time we gather for Mass and seek the Sacrament of Confession or celebrate any Sacrament for that matter. Each Sacrament offers Christ and His grace to avoid sin and evil and to do good for others in love.

In the simple gift of that plaque: "Every Saint Has A Past – Every Sinner Has A Future" I am reminded: we all have our problems, shortcomings, and sins, but we are all called to be saints—so don't let the past keep you from your future. The remedy has always been, acknowledge your wrongdoing (sins), seek forgiveness, as well as offer forgiveness, and then sainthood comes easily.

I invite you (everyone) to come to our Adult Ed class where we are studying, reflecting, discussing, this huge topic on the need and practice of forgiveness.

Have a great week.

-Fr. Ray

October is Respect Life Month: How to Build a Culture of Life

(cont'd from last week)

Missionary Discipleship

This doesn't necessarily mean quitting our jobs or moving to foreign countries. For most of us, our mission field is daily life: "Christ teaches us how to evangelize, how to invite people into communion with Him, and how to create a culture of witness: namely, through love. A Christian life lived with charity and faith is the most effective form of evangelization."

The first step towards living this life is allowing Jesus to meet and transform us daily. If we respond to His grace, our lives will show we have something beyond what the world offers: we follow a Person whose love changes our lives, so we want others to also experience His transforming love.

When we live in union with God, open to His prompting, we're more able to see the opportunities for witness and His guidance in responding to these opportunities. We may fear doing the wrong thing or saying the wrong thing, but we do not need to be afraid. Jesus promised His disciples, "I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

Identity Crisis

As a society and as individuals, we often measure ourselves by false standards: by what and how much we do, our successes or failures, how others treat us, the degree of our pleasure or independence, etc. And when these changeable substitutes prove to be insufficient, or when we are faced with challenges and suffering, we may feel helpless, alone, or abandoned; we may be tempted to feel as though our lives have decreased value or worth.

But God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather Whose we are. Because His love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives.

From the Bishop

After the devastations of Hurricanes Harvey & Irma, we were prone to believe that the worst was over. Not so. Hurricane Maria came with its unbelievable fury and nearly totally destroyed Puerto Rico. With all this tragedy, I realize that compassion and collection fatigue set in. But this is the time we need to reach deeper than ever and perhaps our authentic compassion is tested. Since the need is so extensive, I ask that a special collection for the victims of Hurricane Maria be taken up. The need of those affected pales in comparison to our resources which admittedly have been stretched. We will ask for your donations over the weekend of October 28th-29th. Thank you.
