From the Pastor: Friday, June 3, is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. When Our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alcoque, He said: "Behold this Heart, which has loved men so much, and which is loved by them so little." That should make every one of us stop and think about our lives. Our Lord promised that His heart would "...expand and shed its love abundantly on all who shall honor it, or cause it to be honored." This week, ask Our Lord what you can do to honor His Sacred Heart.

If you have an abundance of stuffed animals in good shape drop them by the Parish Office. We can use them for prizes for the Kids

Games at the Picnic July 16th. We can also use some glassware for the dime pitch. That can be dropped off at the Parish Office as well. We still are looking for someone to be in charge of the cook house for the chicken dinners. If you can help please call Deb Lawrence at 637-3149.
