From the Pastor: On Monday, October 1, the Church celebrated the feast day of St. Therese of Liseux also known as the Little Flower. Her path to sanctity was paved by what she termed her "little way". Which may be summarized as trying to live her state in life as well as she could. Rev. John F. Russell, O. Carm. Explains it this way: St. Therese translated "the little way" in terms of a commitment to the tasks and to the people we meet in our everyday lives. She took her assignments in the convent of Lisieux as ways of manifesting her love for God and for others. She worked as a sacristan by taking care of the altar and the chapel; she served in the refectory and in the laundry room; she wrote plays for the entertainment of the community. Above all, she tried to show a love for all the nuns in the community. She played no favorites; she gave of herself even to the difficult members. Her life sounds so routine and ordinary, but it was steeped in a loving commitment that knew no breakdown. It is called a little way precisely by being simple, direct, yet calling for amazing fortitude and commitment.
