Pastors Column: On Monday, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Mary Magdalen. The following is taken from the Sermons of Pope St. Gregory the Great (d. 604):
Mary Magdalen, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, through love of the truth, washed away in her tears the defilement of her sins, and the words of the Truth (Jesus) are fulfilled which He spoke: Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much. She who had remained chilly in sin, became fiery through love. When even His disciples went away again unto their own home, Mary still stood without at the sepulcher of Christ, weeping. She sought Him Whom her soul loved, but she found Him not. She searched for Him with tears; she yearned with strong desire for Him Who, she believed, had been taken away. And thus it befell her, that being the only one who had remained to seek Him, she was the only one that saw Him. It is the truth that the backbone of a good work is perseverance.
