Pastor's Column: Our Forty Hours devotions begin this weekend. I am including the following excerpt from Immaculata Magazine ©1976 for your consideration:

There are many extraordinary, as well as thoroughly authenticated miracles connected with the Eucharist. It is as if God was periodically reaffirming or substantiating anew to those of little faith, "indeed it is the Lord" we are dealing with. Some miracles are connected with a lack of faith in the Real Presence (Lanciano). Others follow an incident in which the Blessed Sacrament has been profaned. And the third type is for no other purpose than to prove conclusively to an adamant nonbeliever how pitiful human reason is in the presence of the supernatural. Perhaps the best known miracle in which there was a lack of faith in the Real Presence was the miracle of Bolsena-Orvieto. A Bohemian priest by the name of Peter of Prague was tempted into questioning the Real Presence. When he broke the Host after the Consecration he was stunned to see blood flowing from it and dripping onto the corporal (the square piece of linen on which the Host and chalice are placed during Mass). The bloodstained corporal was taken to the Cathedral of Orvieto where it is preserved to this day. It was as a result of this great miracle that the Pope commissioned Saint Thomas Aquinas to write the Mass of the "Body of Christ" (Corpus Christi). Pope Paul VI in our own day visited the famous shrine in August of 1964 for the anniversary of the Miracle of Orvieto.
