Bishop Gainer has extended his support to Restoring Catholic Trust, LLC, an independent group of laity in the Diocese of Hbg. This group recently established an Independent Laity Advisory Council which is independent of the Diocese. This Council has developed a brief survey that is available throughout the Diocese. Copies of Bishop Gainer's letter of support with the survey attached may be found in the vestibule of the church.

Pastor's Column: St. Margaret Mary Alcoque on the Sacred Heart: It seems to me that our Lord's earnest desire to have his sacred heart honored in a special way is directed towards renewing the effects of redemption in our souls. For the sacred heart is an inexhaustible fountain and its sole desire is to pour itself out into the hearts of the humble so as to free them and prepare them to lead lives according to his good pleasure.

From this divine heart three streams flow endlessly. The first is the stream of mercy for sinners; it pours into their hearts sentiments of contrition and repentance. The second is the stream of charity which helps all in need and especially aids those seeking perfection to find the means of surmounting their difficulties. From the third stream flow love and light for the benefit of his friends who have attained perfection; these he wishes to unite to himself so that they may share his knowledge and commandments and, in their individual ways, devote themselves wholly to advancing his glory.

This divine heart is an abyss of all blessings, and into it the poor should submerge all their needs. It is an abyss of joy in which all of us can immerse our sorrows. It is an abyss of lowliness to counteract our foolishness, an abyss of mercy for the wretched, an abyss of love to meet our every need.
