Our Sisters of St. Joseph will be selling chances this weekend to benefit the sick and infirmed Sisters at the Villa in Flourtown.

There is a second collection this weekend for World Mission Sunday.

We've had 2 of our Parishioners go home to be with the Lord last week, Lloyd Lindsey and Gladys Noel. Please pray for them and their families as they deal with their loss.

Therefore, you must unite yourselves to the heart of our Lord Jesus Christ, both at the beginning of your conversion in order to obtain proper dispositions, and at its end in order to make reparation. Are you making no progress in prayer? Then you need only offer God the prayers which the Savior has poured out for us in the sacrament of the altar. Offer God his fervent love in reparation for your sluggishness. In the course of every activity pray as follows: "My God, I do this or I endure that in the heart of your Son and according to his holy counsels. I offer it to you in reparation for anything blameworthy or imperfect in my actions." Continue to do this in every circumstance of life. And every time that some punishment, affliction or injustice comes your way, say to yourself: "Accept this as sent to you by the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ in order to unite yourself to Him."

But above all preserve peace of heart. This is more valuable than any treasure. In order to preserve it there is nothing more useful than renouncing your own will and substituting for it the will of the Divine Heart. In this way His will can carry out for us whatever contributes to his glory, and we will be happy to be His subjects and to trust entirely in Him.

Our Parishioner Agnes "Dusty" Pohlman is back in town! She is at Columbia Cottage, 2288 Grandview Rd. Rm. 22, Hanover.
