Pastor’s Column:

St. Augustine (d. 430) discussing the humility of Christ
 Let us then follow Christ’s paths which He has revealed to us, above all the path of humility, which He Himself became for us. He showed us that path by his precepts, and He Himself followed it by His suffering on our behalf. In order to die for us – because as God he could not die – the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. The immortal One took on mortality that He might die for us, and by dying put to death our death. This is what the Lord did, this the gift He granted to us. The mighty one was brought low, the lowly one was slain, and after He was slain, He rose again and was exalted. For He did not intend to leave us dead in hell, but to exalt in Himself at the resurrection of the dead those whom He had already exalted and made just by the faith and praise they gave Him. Yes, He gave us the path of humility. If we keep to it we shall confess our belief in the Lord and have good reason to sing: We shall praise you, God, we shall praise you and call upon your name.

Missalettes available-- The parish is no longer allowed to keep missalettes in the pews out of concern for spreading the virus. Missalettes will be available for you to take home or to give to the homebound. They are located at the entrances to the church. If you plan on bringing your missalette to Mass, please write your name on the front cover so that it may be put aside for you if you accidentally leave it behind.

Eucharistic Devotions

Our annual Eucharistic Devotions (Forty Hours) will be held on September 20 through 22 at 7:00 pm and will consist of our usual devotions, a sermon and benediction. Volunteers are needed to clean the pews after each evening.

CCD Update

CCD classes will be delayed for a few weeks this year as we evaluate the different options recommended by the Diocesan Office of Evangelization. CCD Registration dates will be announced in the parish bulletin and on the parish website.
