The Readings for this weekend are:

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24,27a

The Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

Our most heartfelt thanks for those who are mailing or dropping off their envelopes! There is a box on the front screened in porch of the Parish Office if you would like to drop off envelopes or other communications.

The Church is open daily from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00p.m. Please use the upper handicap parking lot as only Mary's side is open, the rest of the inside of the Church is roped off. The limited access and hours are due to the required cleaning and sanitizing that must be done before re-opening the next day.

Confessions are at 4:00p.m. on Saturdays in the Church but instead of the confessional a portable confessional is set up at the Daily Mass Chapel.

Cemetery News: There will be a fall cleanup in the cemetery starting on Wed. Oct. 14th. Please remove all wanted items by that date.

Pastor's Column:

In Chapter 11 of his First Epistle to the Corinthians, St. Paul describes the institution of the Eucharist and then impresses upon the Corinthians the duty of receiving the Eucharist worthily; and, points out the connection between their sacrilegious communions and their many illnesses reminding us that God's punishments may also include temporal punishment that is, punishment during our earthly lives.

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many among you are ill and infirm, and a considerable number are dying. If we discerned ourselves, we would not be under judgment; but since we are judged by [the] Lord, we are being disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

Sacred Heart parishioner Chris Livelsberger was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate by Bishop Gainer on September 12 and has been assigned here. Please keep Deacon Livelsberger and his family in your prayers as he enters the service of the Lord.

Catherine McMaster and Daniel Hoke entered into Holy Matrimony here on September 12.

Please pray for Robert Bolin (age 99) who went home to be with the Lord this week. Please pray for his family as they deal with their loss.

Second Collections

The following second collections will be taken in the coming weeks: This weekend (Sept. 19-20)—Disaster relief collection for areas affected by Hurricane Laura and other disasters.

Next weeks (Sept. 26-28)—Missionary Cooperative Weekend

(Fr. Howard will make the appeal on behalf of the missionary) Because of the restrictions regarding how collections are taken, a basket will be labeled and set up in the back of the church. Otherwise you may contribute in the future as long as you use a separate envelope or put a note indicating what the donation is for.

Pictorial Directory

Directories will be distributed after the Masses on the weekends of September 19-20 & 26-27.

Altar Flowers

Altar flowers for both the main altar and each of the side altars may be sponsored by contacting the Parish Office or by leaving a note in the collection.

Eucharistic Devotions

Our annual Eucharistic Devotions (Forty Hours) will be held on September 20 through 22. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed

Sun. Sept. 20, 2020

@ 6:15 pm each evening and our devotions will begin at 7:00 pm. Volunteers are needed to clean the pews after each evening.
