The Readings for this weekend are:

First Reading: Ezekiel 18:25-28

Second Reading: Philippians 2:1-11 or 2:1-5

The Gospel: Matthew 21:28-32

Our most Heartfelt thanks for those who are mailing or dropping off their envelopes! There is a box on the front screened in porch of the Parish Office if you would like to drop off envelopes or other communications.

The Church is open daily from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00p.m. Please use the upper handicap parking lot as only Mary's side is open, the rest of the inside of the Church is roped off. The limited access and hours are due to the required cleaning and sanitizing that must be done before re-opening the next day.

Confessions are at 4:00p.m. on Saturdays in the Church but instead of the confessional a portable confessional is set up at the Daily Mass Chapel.

Cemetery News: There will be a fall cleanup in the cemetery starting on Wed. Oct. 14th. Please remove all wanted items by that date.

Pastor's Column:

Tuesday, September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels. In general, angels were created by God as angels. They began as angels and will always be angels. Archangels are sent by God to proclaim messages of supreme importance. St. Gregory the Great (d. 604) wrote the following:

[P]ersonal names are assigned to some...to denote their ministry when they came among us. Thus, Michael means "Who is like God"; Gabriel is "The Strength of God"; and Raphael is "God's Remedy."

Whenever some act of wondrous power must be performed, Michael is sent, so that his action and his name may make it clear that no one can do what God does by his superior power. So also our ancient foe desired in his pride to be like God, saying: I will ascend into heaven; I will exalt my throne above the stars of heaven; I will be like the Most High. He will be allowed to remain in power until the end of the world when he will be destroyed in the final punishment. Then, he will fight with the archangel Michael, as we are told by John: A battle was fought with Michael the archangel.

So too Gabriel, who is called God's strength, was sent to Mary. He came to announce the One who appeared as a humble man to quell the cosmic powers. Thus God's strength announced the coming of the Lord of the heavenly powers, mighty in battle. Raphael means, as I have said, God's remedy, for when he touched Tobit's eyes in order to cure him, he banished the darkness of his blindness. Thus, since he is to heal, he is rightly called God's remedy.

CCD Registration

CCD registration forms are available on the parish website <https://sacredheartbasilica.com/ccd>. This year instruction will primarily through <https://www.catholicbrain.com> rather than in class instruction with occasional on site meetings for the sacramental years (grades 2 & 8) There will be no charge for CCD this year.

Second Collections

The following second collections will be taken in the coming weeks: This weeks (Sept. 26-28)—Missionary Cooperative Weekend (Fr. Howard will make the appeal on behalf of the missionary) Because of the restrictions regarding how collections are taken, a basket will be labeled and set up in the back of the church. Otherwise you may contribute in the future as long as you use a separate envelope or put a note indicating what the donation is for.

Pictorial Directory

Directories will be distributed after the Masses on the weekends of September 19-20 & 26-27. After this weekend you can call the parish office to make arrangements to pick up your directory.

Altar Flowers

Altar flowers for both the main altar and each of the side altars may be sponsored by contacting the Parish Office or by leaving a note in the collection.

PRAYER TO THE THREE ARCHANGELS

Heavenly King, You have given us archangels to assist us during our pilgrimage on earth. Saint Michael is our protector; I ask him to come to my aid, fight for all my loved ones, and protect us from danger. Saint Gabriel is a messenger of the Good News; I ask him to help me clearly hear Your voice and to teach me the truth. Saint Raphael is the healing angel; I ask him to take my need for healing and that of everyone I know, lift it up to Your throne of grace and deliver back to us the gift of recovery. Help us, O Lord, to realize more fully the reality of the archangels and their desire to serve us. Holy angels, pray for us. Amen.
