The Readings for this weekend are:

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

The Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

The Church is open daily from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00p.m. Please use the upper handicap parking lot as only Mary's side is open, the rest of the inside of the Church is roped off. The limited access and hours are due to the required cleaning and sanitizing that must be done before re-opening the next day.

Confessions are at 4:00p.m. on Saturday's in the Church but instead of the confessional a portable confessional is set up at the Daily Mass Chapel.

Pastor's Column: In 1994, at the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington D.C., St. Teresa of Calcutta said the following: But I feel that the greatest destroyer of peace today is abortion, because it is a war against the child, a direct killing of the innocent child, murder by the mother herself. And if we accept that a mother can kill even her own child, how can we tell other people not to kill one another? Her spiritual director wrote the following prayer:

Election Prayer

by Servant of God, Father John Anthony Hardon, S.J.

Lord Jesus Christ, You told us to give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God. Enlighten the minds of our people in America. May we choose a President of the United States, and other government officials, according to Your Divine Will. Give our citizens the courage to choose leaders of our nation who respect the sanctity of unborn human life, the sanctity of marriage, the sanctity of marital relations, the sanctity of the family, and the sanctity of the aging. Grant us the wisdom to give You, what belongs to You, our God. If we do this, as a nation, we are confident You will give us an abundance of Your blessings through our elected leaders. Amen.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Composed by Father John Anthony Hardon, S.J.

Imprimatur: +Rene H. Gracida, Bishop of Corpus Christi, July 7, 1992
